WELCOME!

The Cathedral Basilica of Christ the King is the principal church of the Diocese of Hamilton and home to the Bishop of Hamilton. The word "cathedral" comes from "cathedra" or Bishop's chair located in the church. On February 25th, 2013, in recognition of the significance of its design, and its importance in the Diocese, the Cathedral was given the status of a Minor Basilica by Pope Benedict XVI. The Cathedral Basilica was completed in 1933, and is a very beautiful structure that is reflective of the lively faith of its parishioners and the entire Diocese of Hamilton.

The Cathedral Basilica's Coat of Arms presents a shield sheltered by the ombrellino, and with crossed keys representing the papal designation of basilica status. The shield has a symbol for Christ with the crown of thorns and the crown of glory. The motto in Latin - every eye shall see him.

PASTORAL REFERENCES FOR TEACHERS

Catholics seeking employment with Catholic School Boards - teachers, administrators, EA's - are usually asked to obtain a "Pastoral Reference" from their Parish Priest. Please know that we are happy to provide such references for individuals who are registered and supportive members of the Cathedral Parish with their time, talent and treasure. The Pastoral Reference is given following a personal interview with the Rector.

POPE FRANCIS' GENERAL AUDIENCE

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the commandments, we now consider the text of the Decalogue, the ten commandments given to Moses on Mount Sinai. The text begins with the words: "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery" (Ex 20:2). God first identifies himself as our God, the God whose love sets us free from all that enslaves us. These words show that God's "commands" are really an invitation to respond with gratitude to his saving love, a love disclosed fully in the coming of Jesus his Son. Gratitude to God for his many gifts, and willingness to accept his offer of love, are at the heart of the Christian moral life; they inspire us to heed God's words and obey his commands. If our obedience to God's law is servile, mere legalism, then, like the ancient Israelites, we should cry out in prayer to be released from that slavery and to enjoy the freedom of God's beloved children in Christ. God wants to break every chain that binds us, so that, in loving obedience to his will, we can enjoy true freedom and life in abundance.

of Christ's faithful by reason of their baptism. This must be given careful consideration above all else when preparing and celebrating the Eucharist and the other Sacraments. Participation in the liturgy is the primary and indispensable source from which the faithful are to derive the true Christian spirit; and therefore, Pastors must zealously strive to achieve this (SC, 14).

3. The liturgical books provide for certain options. Priests are encouraged to use the options available, and where appropriate, according to the rubrics, may use their own words for some instructions. However, no priest may add, remove or change anything in the liturgy on his own authority (SC, 22).

4. Masses celebrated with the faithful in churches in the Diocese of Hamilton, whenever possible, are to be celebrated at a free standing altar, facing the people, observing faithfully the rubrics in the Third Typical Edition of the Roman Missal (see GIRM, 299). There is to be no transferring of rubrics or gestures from the Extraordinary Form of the Mass into the celebration of the Novus Ordo Missae which is the Ordinary Form of the Mass and therefore, the principal Form.

5. The Extraordinary Form of the Mass may be celebrated without a congregation by any Priest of the Diocese, using the Roman Missal published by Saint John XXIII in 1962 (Summorum Pontificum, 2). Such celebrations may be attended by members of the lay faithful who spontaneously request to do so (SP, 4). Masses are celebrated in the Extraordinary Form in Parishes where a stable group attached to this Form exists (SP, 5§1). However, the Extraordinary Form is not to replace the Ordinary Form Masses that are regularly scheduled on Sundays or Solemnities in the Parish.

6. It is not permitted to add extra prayers after the dismissal at Mass as was customary by Papal authority only prior to the conciliar reform.

GATHERED INTO ONE

His Excellency, Bishop Crosby, published his Pastoral Letter on the Liturgy - Gathered into One - on March 25th. In our summer bulletins we'll share excerpts of the Pastoral Letter. The following paragraphs are from the section entitled General Norms:

1. The norms for the celebration of the Eucharist and the other sacraments are found in the most recent liturgical books published by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops which have received the approval from the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments. These are not arbitrary norms and are to be followed faithfully.

2. The full, conscious and active participation by all is the duty of Pastors and the right and duty
