WELCOME!

The Cathedral Basilica of Christ the King is the principal church of the Diocese of Hamilton and home to the Bishop of Hamilton. The word "cathedral" comes from "cathedra" or Bishop's chair located in the church. On February 25th, 2013, in recognition of the significance of its design, and its importance in the Diocese, the Cathedral was given the status of a Minor Basilica by Pope Benedict XVI. The Cathedral Basilica was completed in 1933, and is a very beautiful structure that is reflective of the lively faith of its parishioners and the entire Diocese of Hamilton.

The Cathedral Basilica's Coat of Arms presents a shield sheltered by the ombrellino, and with crossed keys representing the papal designation of basilica status. The shield has a symbol for Christ with the crown of thorns and the crown of glory. The motto in Latin - every eye shall see him.

POPE FRANCIS ON DISCERNMENT

Living in the age of information technology, we know how important it is to know the password in order to get into the programmes where the most personal and valuable information is stored. But spiritual life, too, has its “passwords”: there are words that touch the heart because they refer to what we are most sensitive too. The tempter, that is, the devil, knows these passwords well, and it's important that we know them too, so as not to find ourselves where we do not want to be. Temptation does not necessarily suggest bad things, but often haphazard things, presented with excessive importance. In this way it hypnotizes us with the attraction that these things stir in us, things that are beautiful but illusory, that cannot deliver what they promise, and therefore leave us in the end with a sense of emptiness and sadness. That sense of emptiness and sadness is a sign that we have embarked on a path that was not right, that has disoriented us. They can be, for example, degrees, careers, relationships, all things that are in themselves praiseworthy, but towards which, if we are not free, we risk harbouring unreal expectations, such as confirmation of our worth. For example, when you think of a study you are undertaking, do you think only of promoting yourself, for your own interests, or also to serve the community? There, one can see the intentionality of each one of us. From this misunderstanding often comes the greatest suffering, because none of those things can be the guarantee of our dignity.

RCIA

We are happy to report that we are currently working with three individuals who are preparing to become members of the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Initiation. Our process this year is being offered jointly with Saint Joseph Parish and Canadian Martyrs. Please pray for all involved.

MASS IN FOUR PARTS

A four-part series on the Mass begins on Monday, October 17th at St. Joseph Parish (Herkimer and Locke Streets). This series will explore what we do, why we do and how we do everything during Sunday Mass. Each session will take place in the Parish Hall and be offered twice; once in the afternoon (1:30 – 3:00 p.m.) and once in the evening (7:00 – 8:30 p.m.). Msgr. Kroetsch will facilitate these sessions.

October 17 – The Introductory Rite

October 24 – The Liturgy of the Word

October 31 – The Liturgy of the Eucharist

November 7 – Communion and Dismissal

There is no cost to this program. All are welcome!

ALTAR SERVERS

Any youngster – aged Grade 4 or older – who wishes to serve at Sunday Mass please see Father Dave or Sandra for an application. A meeting of new servers and parents will be held in the coming weeks. Serving at Sunday Mass is a great privilege and will help these young people grow in their faith and in love for Jesus in the Eucharist.

MINISTERS OF THE WORD & EUCHARIST

Adults, and senior high school young adults, who wish to serve as Ministers of the Word or as Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion please see Father Dave or Sandra. Training will be provided.

CWL GENERAL MEETING

All members are welcome to a general meeting on Sunday, October 23, after the 11 a.m. Mass, in McNally Hall. Dr. Moira McQueen will offer reflections on the upcoming Synod and the whole notion of synodality as a way forward in the life of the Church.
