Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 20, 2017

Fr. John Pirt's Return

Our pastor, Fr. John Pirt, will return this coming week. We hope he had a restful vacation and is re-energized. Fr. John spent approximately two weeks on the Island of St. Miguel in the Azores. We wish him a safe return by the intercession of St. Michael the Archangel.

Shrine Days

I was asked by the Rosarians, approximately three months ago, if I was willing to lead one of the diocesan Shrine Days at Our Lady of the Rosary Shrine in Merlin. I agreed, and I send out an invitation for all of you to join me this Monday at Our Lady of the Rosary Shrine in Merlin.

The day begins with the Celebration of an Outdoor Mass at 11:00am (weather permitting), followed by a Rosary procession at 1:00pm. We will conclude the day with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

This is a blessed day for families and extended families to gather and celebrate our shared Faith in the role of our Blessed Mother in our lives.

The address is 5773 Tenth Line Box 203 Merlin, Ontario. For more information, please visit their website at

Readings of this Weekend:

From Isaiah:

How are we being called to do the right thing, to seek justice, to make days holy?

From Paul:

Are we aware of the great love that God has for us?

From the Canaanite woman's encounter with Christ:

What am I doing to nurture that Faith – do I pray, read scripture, meditate? How is God calling me to a deeper relationship?

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Danny

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel challenges us to keep before our eyes an understanding of church as the community of believers who constantly make present the risen Christ. The church will prevail because Jesus' saving mission will prevail to the end of time when all will be gathered back to the Father.
