Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time August 27, 2017

From the Desk of Fr. John:

1. Fr. Pat Fuerth: The Fuerth family has asked that we keep Fr. Pat in our prayers. His health has declined considerably over the past month. They ask that you do not call or visit him, but rather pray for him, and if so desired, drop off cards and best wishes to the office and we will see that he gets them.

2. Nine and Eleven Baird: About a week ago I was informed that the house at 11 Baird has been sold. We have a conditional offer on 9 Baird and once this sale is completed, I will let you know the details.

3. Cursillo: One of the most life-changing events in my life would have to be my Cursillo Weekend. It was in 1980, and it changed so much in my life. I would like to meet with anyone who has made a Cursillo Weekend this coming Tuesday, August 29th after the 7:00pm Mass - we will meet in the lower level of the Church.

4. Azores / Lisboa: I had a wonderful time on holidays. I toured the entire island of Sao Miguel and enjoyed it very much. I also had two days in Lisboa and was able to see many of the sites there. It is good to be home.

Readings of this Weekend:

From the prophet Isaiah: Do we take time to listen to God's voice?

Paul's letter to the Romans: How am I being called to manifest God's glory in my life today?

From Matthew: How do we back up our profession with our actions?

Have a great day,

Fr. John.

Tuesday September 12, 2017 at 7:00pm

Most Precious Blood Parish Hall—1947 Meldrum Rd. Windsor, Ontario. With Dr. Mary Healy, Professor of Scripture, Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

Many Catholics today think of miraculous healings as something relatively rare, found mainly in the lives of great saints or at shrines like Lourdes. Yet Scripture shows that healings are meant to be a normal part of the life of the Church, especially in the context of evangelization. Scripture professor Mary Healey will explain the implications of the Church's mandate to be a "field hospital" in a world filled with people in need of healing.
