Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 7, 2016

Welcome to Father Patrick Beneteau, just returning from World Youth Day and with us to celebrate Mass at St. Joseph's today for 10:30 and 12:00 noon.

Be prepared for the unexpected ...Jesus gives us instructions on how to keep ourselves in a state of readiness/preparedness, not in fear of the future, but in trust and hope, like our father, Abraham who left behind his past to find the way to the promised land.

We are servants of the Lord and of one another. Blessed are those servants who are faithful and responsible. The faithful servant doesn't fear the master's return. He or she welcomes it.

Any time is a bad time for the unfaithful servant. Any time is a good time for the faithful servant.

"We are not called to be successful, only to be faithful", as Mother Teresa of Calcutta—soon to be canonized a saint—once said.

With this in mind, please continue to pray about and discern our possible new Sunday morning Mass schedule. We need to reduce the number of masses on Sunday morning. I thank everyone who came out to our general meeting last week, and for the prayerful comments I continue to receive. I am convinced now more than ever that we need to simplify our plans and become more family-oriented in all our celebrations of Mass.

This is not an easy decision to make and not everyone will be happy with the outcome, but it is for the common good of all that we will take a new path.

Have a blessed week and keep our sick and suffering parishioners in your kind prayers.

BEATITUDES OF LIFE

Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings.

Blessed are the just: they are to society what leaven is to bread.

Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people.

Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference.

Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness.

Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on the day of the harvest they will sing for joy.

And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven.

May we be gifted in unity to serve God and all peoples in authentic love

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Does the teaching of Christ ever disturb me? Does it cause me to question the way I'm living? Does it ever bring me into conflict with those who do not live by the Gospel? If it does not do so, it can only mean that I'm not really hearing it. Christ's teaching is like a sword that separates good from evil.
