ST. JOSEPH THE PATRON OF A HAPPY DEATH

While no one knows for certain when St. Joseph died, most biblical scholars believe Joseph died prior to Jesus' crucifixion.

With this in mind, many traditions believe that Joseph died in the arms or presence of Jesus and Mary. It is a beautiful image, one that has led the Church to proclaim Joseph the patron saint of a happy death.

After the incident of losing – and then finding – Jesus in the Temple when he was 12 or 13, we read nothing more about Joseph. However, because Jesus entrusts Mary to one of His disciples at His crucifixion, we can make the assumption that Joseph died before Jesus fulfilled His mission on earth. For generations, Catholics have painted a picture of Joseph breathing his last with Mary and Jesus by his side to comfort him.

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ,

Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your heavenly power I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me, and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen.-

Prayer to St. Joseph (believed to be over 1900 years old)
