Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 10, 2016

Jesus, the master story teller, involves us at several points in his telling the story about the Good Samaritan. At different times in our lives we may identify with any one of the characters in the story, even the one found at the other side of the road, left for dead. He tells this story to answer the question of the Pharisees who were out to make a fool of Jesus by posing the question: "and who is my neighbour?" Some of the early Fathers of the Church saw in this story an allegory of how Jesus himself treats and cares for us: the inn representing the Church, the oil and wine representing the sacraments, the payment representing the sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. We may also see in it the blessings poured out upon those who are care-givers, which all of us are called to be for everyone in our world. Perhaps we can see the corporal and spiritual works of mercy in this story. Here is a reflection to help our prayer this week:

BEATITUDES FOR THOSE WHO CARE

The good Samaritan was someone who cared.

Blessed are those who care; they will let people know they are loved.

Blessed are those who are gentle; they will help people to grow as the sun helps the buds to unfold.

Blessed are those who listen; they will lighten many a burden.

Blessed are those who know how to let go; they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.

Blessed are those who, when nothing can be done or said, do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence; they will help the sufferer to bear the unbearable.

Blessed are those who recognise their own need to receive; they will be able to give all the better.

And blessed are those who give without hope of return;

They will give people an experience of God.

Can you save your marriage by attending and working the Retrouvaille program? You will never know until you try. Call the phone number (1-800-705-6456) or send an email (1015@retrouvaille.org) to the caring Retrouvaille volunteers in your area. Ask them those tough questions that keep nagging at you in the back of your mind. The people answering the phone or responding to your email are people just like you who have been there and pushed through to the 4th Stage of Awakening. They will be able to relate to your feelings of hopelessness and loss. They will do their best to give you the answers you need about this program. A weekend is coming near you at Holy Family Retreat House, August 19-21 and is a Catholic sponsored ministry that is open to couples of all or no religious background. Be assured that all contacts are held in the strictest confidence.

THANKS go out to everyone involved in the leadership of planning weekend liturgies. We met this week to begin a discernment of the way we should go in our celebrations of weekend Masses before we move into our new church of St. Michael and chapel of St. Peter.

Plan on coming to our parish picnic to honour all of our VOLUNTEERS by celebrating the Sunday Mass together at 3:00 p.m. in the Kiwanis camp grounds (on Seaciff, just East of Union/Ruthven) followed by games for the kids, good conversation, and food. Bring one of your favourite dishes to add to the buffet of barbequed hot dogs and burgers and unforgettable baked beans.

REMEMBER: THERE WILL NOT BE A SUNDAY EVENING MASS THE DAY OF THE PICNIC - JULY 17TH.

As we begin summer holidays, we pray daily for our young people, for the safety of all who travel on holiday, for workers in our fields, for our sick and for people who can't get out.

VOCATIONS INFORMATION CORNER

This Month is a focus on Permanent Deacons

The Permanent Diaconate is essentially a ministry of service and charity. The Deacon serves the Church and the diocese in a designated area of service in a hospital or prison or other forms of charitable outreach. The Deacon is assigned to a parish as his liturgical base, where he assists the pastor as needed in liturgical ministry: assisting at Mass, preaching, baptizing, presiding at weddings or funerals or in other capacities within the parish. Deacons may be married and their spouse is involved in the vocation and ministry of their Deacon husband. Deacon formation lasts four years. They share in the sacrament of Orders with Bishops and Priests.
