The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 23, 2017

From the Desk of Fr John:

1. Sale of 9 and 11 Baird:

This coming Tuesday, the Municipality of Leamington will be dealing with the severance of these houses from the parish, and they will soon be listed on the market for sale. The proceeds from the sale will be used to reduce our debt.

2. Confession Times:

There has been a slight change to Confession Times for Saturday mornings. The new time is 8:30am to 9:30am.

3. This week's questions:

From Wisdom: When I look at my life, how am I in need of God's mercy, compassion and forgiveness?

From Paul: Have I been overwhelmed by the cares and temptations of life? Have I called upon the Spirit of God for help?

From Jesus: Are we patient with one another OR do we write others off quickly, not allowing the grace of God to work in them? Do I recognize that my little choices everyday affect the lives of others? How should this realization influence me?

4. Financial Report to the Parish:

We have recently reconciled the books for the first six months of the year. I will be presenting a financial report to the parish very soon.

In Christ,

Fr John

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
We search for the Kingdom of Heaven by seeking more for our lives than what human gratification gives. We sacrifice for the Kingdom of Heaven by emptying ourselves for the good of others. We sort for the Kingdom of Heaven when we take time at the end of each day to examine our consciences for the good and not so good we've done that day.
