THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST Sunday June 3, 2018

1. First Communions:

Today is the last Sunday for First Communions. I would like to thank those who have helped with the parish preparation for this Sacrament. I would also like to thank our teachers for their efforts with our Grade Two students - it is greatly appreciated! We should be keeping these young people and their families in our prayers - that they may grow more aware of God's great love for them.

2. Building Issues:

Church - Office Link

This project - the link between the Church and the Office - has been moving slowly. The architectural drawings are well underway and I hope that we will be going to tender very soon. It would be great to have it in place before the snow flies!

Our Leaky Roof

As you may know, we have had ongoing issues with a leaky roof. About a month ago, a roofing specialist examined the roof in order to ascertain where the water was coming in. His report is in the hands of our architect and builder who are lining up the correct tradesmen to come and fix this issue.

Wall behind the Altar

There is a plan in place to repair the wall behind the Altar (two horizontal cracks are there). The plan will require that we be in a state of disrepair for two consecutive weekends. I am not too concerned if we have to work around scaffolding and equipment on the weekends, but it would not be an acceptable situation for weddings in the parish. I have forwarded a wedding schedule to our architect and builder.

In Christ,
Fr. John.

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A central theme of Mark's gospel is how Jesus' hearers fail to was by those closest to him.
