PENTECOST SUNDAY May 20, 2018

This Sunday we celebrate Pentecost reminding us of the gifts the Holy Spirit has given to us in order to build up our community and the mystical body of Christ. We are to be agents of the Kingdom of God, which includes justice, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. In light of this, Pope Francis in his recent Encyclical, 'Rejoice and be Glad', speaks of the beatitudes for our modern world today. Our Holy Father tell us that, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

87. This Beatitude makes us think of the many endless situations of war in our world. Yet we ourselves are often a cause of conflict or at least of misunderstanding. For example, I may hear something about someone and I go off and repeat it. I may even embellish it the second time around and keep spreading it...and the more harm it does, the more satisfaction I seem to derive from it. The world of gossip, inhabited by negative and destructive people, does not bring peace. Such people are really the enemies of peace; in no way are they "blessed".

88. Peacemakers truly "make" peace; they build peace and friendship in society. To those who sow peace, Jesus makes this magnificent promise: "They will be called children of God." (Mt 5:9). He told his disciples that, wherever they went, they were to say: "Peace to this house!" (Lk 10:5). The word of God exhorts every believer to work for peace, "along with all who call upon the Lord with a pure heart." (cf. 2 Tim 2:22). "The harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace." (Jas 3:18). If there are times in our community when we question what ought to be done, "let us pursue what makes for peace," (Rom 14:19) for unity is preferable to conflict.

We are called to be peacemakers for our world and it starts in our community. May we always reflect on how our words or actions, especially about others, can either build up or tear down people around us. May we always listen to the Holy Spirit that has been planted in our hearts in our baptism to bring unity, so that we may be one body, one spirit, in Christ.

Yours in Christ.....Fr. Danny
