Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's celebration of the Liturgy emphasizes that we look forward to the coming of the Lord in glory, and live one day at a time, not in fear but under the protection of Saint Michael the Archangel. We gather for Mass not to keep things going but to drink from the fountain of Faith and sent to give refreshment in every daily circumstance of our lives.

SPECIAL THANKS TO LORRAINE SABGA AND LUCY SALVATI for the best parish dinner fund raiser ever, and to the many donors who supplied so much for our enjoyment. The music of the Italian choir and the choir from Cardinal Carter High and the young soloists was wonderful and made the evening. THANK YOU.

Next Wednesday, November 18th, Father Guy Desrochers, a Redemptorist priest, will celebrate the 7:00 p.m. Mass and will lead us in a Candlelight Procession in honour of Saint Anne. He was with us a few years ago to give our parish mission for three nights.

St. Anne's Devotions are primarily a call to prayer. They are conducted in the same way as those at the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupré. This is a great opportunity for the elderly, the handicapped and all other people to experience a "Mini-Pilgrimage" right here at home.

Special stress is given to prayers for the sick, the afflicted and for peace.

The spiritual attraction is the presence of a first class Relic of St. Anne, the Mother of Mary and Grandmother of Jesus. Please come.

And please remember to pray for the sick and the suffering during the week Father Pat

Christ the King

The feast of Christ our King brings us to the end of the liturgical year. We have travelled a long road since the first Sunday of Advent. Christ has been with us as the invisible Companion of our journey. Let us hope that during it we have grown to know him better, to trust him better and to love him better, so that today we can rejoice in calling him our King.

First Reading (Daniel 7:13-14)

Second Reading (Revelation 1:5-8)

Gospel (John 18:33b-37)

RCIA INQUIRY SESSIONS: Inquiry sessions are informal and open to anyone who has an interest in the Catholic faith. The RCIA team will present some basic tenets of the faith, but most of the sessions will be devoted to answering your questions about Catholicism and helping you discern whether God is calling you into full communion with the Church. Sessions will be forming throughout the year as needed. You may register or obtain additional information from Simone Seres.
