THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 23, 2016

Today's Scripture readings call us to reflect on HUMILITY ... here's some "food for prayer", a brief reflection on this basic virtue in our Christian lives:

"Not until you have failed can you learn true humility. Humility arises from a deep sense of gratitude to God for giving us the strength to rise above our past failures. Humility is consistent with self-respect. The true person has self-respect and the respect of others and yet is humble. The humble person is tolerant of others' failing, and does not have a critical attitude toward the foibles of others. Humble people are hard on themselves and easy on others."

As we prepare for the opening of the new St. Michael's, here are some things to keep in mind:

The last Mass at St. Joseph's will take place on Wednesday November 2nd at 7:00pm. This will be the bereavement Mass in remembrance of our faithful departed. We will also have the consecration of two new chalices and the rite of closing the church as a place of worship.

The first Mass at St. Michael's will take place on Friday, November the 4th at 7:00pm presided over by Bishop Fabbro who will dedicate and consecrate our new church of St. Michael and chapel of St. Peter.

Please remember those struggling in any way in their spiritual and/or temporal needs.

....Fr. Patrick

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today, for World Mission Sunday, along with Catholics throughout the world, we are called to offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, for the worldwide mission of Jesus. Your gift on World Mission Sunday helps:

- People in remote villages, towns and cities through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests.
- Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick and orphans through the service of Religious Sisters and Brothers.
- To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family
- Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer prayer for the work of the Church in the missions today - the Pacific Islands, Latin America, Africa and Asia.

If you know of someone who would like to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation or First Holy Communion, please call Simone at the office at (519) 326-2643 ext. 29

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Zacchaeus's short stature kept him from seeing Jesus with his physical eyes. His ardent desire to encounter Jesus, however, indicates that he had already seen him with the eyes of his heart. Encountering Jesus does not depend upon the goodness of one's life, but encountering him can bring about conversion of life.
