The Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 30, 2016

The Mass for all of our Faithful Departed will take place on Wednesday, November 2nd at 7:00pm. This will be the last Mass at St. Joseph's Church.

Here are great words of wisdom as we come together 'under one' roof in a beautiful new church: My fellow Christians, do we wish to celebrate joyfully the birth of this temple? Then let us not destroy the living temples of God in ourselves by works of evil. I shall speak clearly, so that all can understand. Whenever we come to church, we must prepare our hearts to be as beautiful as we expect this church to be. Do you wish to find this basilica immaculately clean? Then do not soil your soul with the filth of sins. Do you wish this basilica to be full of light? God too wishes that your soul be not in darkness, but that the light of good works shine in us, so that he who dwells in the heavens will be glorified. Just as you enter this church building, so God wishes to enter into our soul, for he promised: I shall live in them, and I shall walk the corridors of their hearts. [from a sermon by Saint Caesarius of Arles, Feast of the Dedication of Saint John Lateran, Rome, the cathedral church of the bishop of the Rome, the Holy Father, and "mother church" of the Church in the West]

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Thank you very much for your generous support for World Mission Sunday last week. This support is a blessing for the Priests, Sisters, Brothers and Lay catechists who depend on this help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please continue to pray for all who serve in mission countries that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ's message of love to those they serve - the world's most vulnerable.

STEPS TO ACCESS FORMED ON YOUR MOBILE DEVICE, COMPUTER OR TABLET:

- Type in URL: www.formed.org
