Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we begin our new Sunday morning Mass schedule, with Masses at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., and an added Mass at Noon to celebrate our parish patronal Feast Day of St. Michael the Archangel.

While this Feast is hosted by the Roma Club, and St. Michael well known and honoured by the Italian peoples, it is the Feast of our whole parish. With the new church building almost completed, it will remain under the patronage of St. Michael. The day-chapel will be named St. Peter's Chapel, where daily Mass and Eucharistic adoration can take place.

My gratitude to all the members of our Parish Advisory Board, and welcome to our newly elected members. The Advisory Board has the mission of overseeing the pastoral plan of the parish, especially the spirituality of our parish. The members are June George, Rose Artherton, Bill Cervini, Lucy Jekel, Johnny Khoury, Pilar Silveira, Maureen Gillanders, and Mike Salive. Sandy acts as secretary and keeps us all on our toes. The priests and lay ecclesial ministers and the deacons are members of this group. When he comes next February, the bishop plans to sit down with the Advisory Board and the Finance Committee as well. Once again, my thanks to so many wonderful people who have served faithfully as members of these key committees in the past.

In today's Gospel from Luke 16, we hear the story of a very rich man who ignored the plight of a beggar sitting at his gate. We also hear from the prophet Amos who speaks out against the wealthy of both Judah and Israel. Here is a little reflection on "how wealth is judged":

A week ago the sycamore tree was loaded with gold.

And without a thought for a wintry tomorrow.

At first it was just a leaf here and a leaf there, whenever the wind asked for a contribution.

But soon it was giving it away in fistfuls, without being asked,

However, instead of sitting back and enjoying it, it began to give it away.

The only wealth that is worth having is the wealth of the heart.
To close one's heart is to begin to die; to open it is to begin to live.
Wealth is judged not by the amount that is accumulated, but by the amount that is given away.

the sick in our parish.*
