FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL

HAPPY FEAST DAY!

Thanks to the Roma Club committee, we honour our patron, St. Michael, as one parish. From now on, we will also be celebrating together as one parish family on the Feast of Pentecost, hosted by the Mordomo of the Festas do Espirito Santo. As we prepare this year to occupy a new St. Michael's church for worship and gatherings of all kinds, we will begin to act together as one family under one roof singing and praying in multiple languages.

The diocesan leadership group is asking us to discuss, pray and talk together about our parish boundaries—where to redraw them so that we can become stronger in our mission of evangelization. We will hear much more about this in the coming months.

Cement trucks delivered a lot of our walls as they go up this week. We are well on the way to seeing our new building rise above the ground level. Please give generously so that we leave no debt behind. Now is the time to channel more funds into the project.

Thanks to those who wish to form a refugee committee to help a Syrian family. We have our name in with the diocesan refugee office and will be able to help as soon as the government loosens the process and makes room for some of these people who are forced to flee from their own homes in order to keep their lives.

Thanks also to those who are forming a St. Theresa's Vocation committee to pray for and promote more vocations to the Priesthood. Father Patrick's initiatives are most welcome in this regard, and he will be with us in the middle of October to lead a Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion.

The FORTY DAYS FOR LIFE began this week with silent, prayerful witness in front of our hospital. Join in anytime. We need to support this effort in a society that is increasingly catering to the "culture of death", as Pope St. John Paul II pointed out.

Materials have come in for the "Why Catholic?" home groups. If you were not part of these wonderful groups before, you can join in at any time—just let the parish office

Prayer for Protection of the Church and Her Members

O glorious St. Michael, guardian and defender of the Church of Jesus Christ, come to the assistance of this Church, against which the powers of hell are unchained, guard with especial care her august Head, and obtain that—for him and for us—the hour of triumph may speedily arrive. O glorious Archangel St. Michael, watch over us during life, defend us against the assaults of the demon assist us especially at the hour of death; obtain for us a favourable judgment, and the happiness of beholding God face to face for endless ages.

Amen.

Please pray for our sick....

Father Pat

May we be gifted in unity to serve God and all peoples in authentic love.love

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings of today's Mass talk about the bond of love that marriage creates between a man and a woman, a bond that God does not wish to see broken. We come to this Eucharist as isolated individuals. But the Eucharist, properly understood and celebrated, creates a bond of love between us.

First Reading (Genesis 2:7ab, 15, 18-24)
Second Reading (Hebrews 2:9-11)
Gospel (Mark 10:2-16)
