Mission Statement

St. Louis Parish is a welcoming and caring Roman Catholic community. We reflect the presence of the Risen Christ among us, as we grow together in Faith, Hope and Love.

For the 22nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

All of us like to be popular. We want to be important. Some of us dream of being in the movies, or running for political office. We all want our fifteen minutes of fame. Today's Gospel reading is about the game playing we'll do in order to climb the social ladder. The setting is a dinner party and the guests, instead of thinking about the wonderful food that's going to be put before them, are thinking about who will sit at the right hand of the host. Jesus observed their efforts at self-promotion and used the occasion to give one of His better-known teachings, this one on how to be truly important. The worst thing about self-promotion is that it never works. We easily recognize the techniques that are employed. One is fault finding. If we cannot build ourselves up, we tear others down. The trouble is that everyone sees through that ploy. Another is name-dropping. But the importance is not transferable. Importance is only acquired the old-fashioned way... by earning it. And then there's boasting. Jesus was so very right - the person who exalts himself would sooner or later, be humiliated... and the humiliation will be self-inflicted. Self-promotion simply never works - ever. But Jesus is talking about being important, not looking important. There are lots of ways of being important. One is to study hard, develop skills, and become exceptionally competent in one's chosen field of endeavor. Another is by being helpful, by being useful in genuinely serving others at minimal cost to them. When you do that you will find yourself to be quite an important person in their lives. Another way is to become important in God's eyes, not in the eyes of those around you. You can do this by helping those whom society deems to be worthless, by becoming one of God's agents in our world. So how many of us have ever thought of sharing our school lunch with someone everyone thinks is a nerd? What is our attitude about people who are "different"? Do we stand with them? What makes us stand out in the crowd as a genuine Christian? What would Jesus do? If we want to be important, we need to ask that question frequently throughout our days and then answer it as best we can. How we answer it may not give us fame, prestige and great importance in the eyes of those around us. But remember, Jesus' opinion is the only vote that counts. "He who humbles himself shall be exalted." Doing what He would do is the most important thing we can ever do. And doing what He would do always makes us be very important persons.

You are invited to our St. Louis Catholic Women's League Welcome Back Potluck Supper And Meeting on Wed, Sept. 4th. Mass at 6:00 pm followed by supper, brief meeting and guest speaker, Fr. Phil Reilly C.R. who will share some of his experiences as a Resurrectionist. Please bring your favourite dish to share with us, plus your plate, silverware and a friend. All members and non members always welcome! Please use the elevator entrance.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2013

Choir practice for the 9:30 Mass resumes on Thursday September 5th at 7:30 pm. New members are encouraged to join our ministry.

Sacramental Preparation classes: Confirmation classes will begin Wednesday, September 11th from 6:30pm-8pm. First Communion classes will begin Wednesday, January 15th from 6:30pm-8pm. If you would like to register for either of these sacraments please call Kelly Krause at the parish office.

Sunday Morning children's programs: There will be a change in the programs beginning this fall. Due to a small number of children attending the programs at 11:30am Mass, we have decided that all children's programs will be concentrated at the 9:30am Mass. If you would like your child to attend Babysitting, Sunday school or Liturgy of the Word, please come to the 9:30am Masses. To help with any inconvenience this may cause, the nursery will remain open for the 11:30am Mass for those children who may need a break from Mass. We ask that you remain with your child at all times, adult supervision is mandatory for the room to remain open. (Bulletin cover info is not correct.)
