CYCLE A

Greetings and peace to all. Since we cannot meet each other in the usual way that new parish priests introduce themselves to their new parishioners and parishes, as we have adapted in so many other ways during the coronavirus, we are adapting with this bulletin intro. I was born in Toronto and was baptised at St Clare's Parish and raised in a family of eight children in Oakville. I am coming to St. Boniface Parish after eleven years serving on the formation faculty at St. Augustine's Seminary. So, we have already been neighbours for a long time. My coming to St. Boniface Parish is a return to parish ministry, something that is close to the heart of every diocesan priest's desire. Parish ministry reflects the gift of family life: loving, sharing, forgiving, accepting, and learning the beauty and wonder of every human person as we all make our own journey to God's kingdom together. My most treasured gift in life has been the place where I learned the most about how to love – family life. Parish life is where I am most happy to continue to make that same journey with you, learning and sharing together God's greatest gifts for us in the sacraments, in prayer and praise, and in parish and community life together. I am looking forward to getting to know you as we share the journey of faith together.

Greetings! My name is Fr. Neiman D'Souza and I am all types of excited to be the new associate pastor of St. Boniface Parish! Why? Bro, the East Side is like the best side and its good to be back in Scarborough! Although culturally I am East Indian, I was born in Kuwait before moving to Canada with my family in the late 80s. I grew up in Markham and Scarborough, north and south of Steeles Ave. I graduated from the York Catholic District School Board. Ordained for the Archdiocese of Toronto as part of the epic class of 2014, this is my third parish assignment. I served at St. Patrick's Parish in Markham for almost two years and then at St. Joseph's Parish in Streetsville for almost four years. I may seem serious at mass, but I am also serious about other things too, like WWE/AEW, Star Trek and punishing my body with Chicken Biryani and Mutton Rolls. I am excited to serve with zeal, for 2 Thess 3:1 is quite clear: "Anyone unwilling to work should not eat." (NRSV) I am looking forward to meeting you, so be there, be aware, and be excited!

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

We are very grateful for your generous financial support to help our neighbours in need. When making a donation by cheque, could you please make it payable to The Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Thank You.

Pontifical Collection for the Custody of the Holy Land on Sunday 13 September, 2020 for the benefit of the Church and the Christians of the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection in support of the Holy Land, usually collected on Good Friday, was cancelled when churches were closed due to the pandemic. Pope Francis has requested that it be taken up on Sunday the 13th of September – a date close to that of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. This feast celebrates Christ's saving work and also reminds us of faithful Christian pilgrims, like St. Helen when she found the relics of the Holy Cross in the 4th century, who have committed themselves to preserving the holy sites as places of worship that sustain our Christian culture and history of salvation. The annual Holy Land Collection not only helps to maintain churches and shrines located at holy sites, but, above all, helps to support the pastoral, welfare, educational and social works that the Church undertakes in caring for the local population. Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, invites you to be in solidarity with the Church and the Christians in the Holy Land. On behalf of the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land, and entrusted with this care, I sincerely thank you in advance for your support. Fr. Robert Mokry, OFM Commissary of Holy Land in Canada.
