TODAY

Working wonders in our community...

“ShareLife supports a large family of Catholic agencies that truly do feed, clothe and shelter people, care for the sick and frail, and befriend the isolated and lonely. Reflecting Catholic charity, they protect the vulnerable, guide and counsel the troubled, visit people in prison and give a voice to the voiceless. Regardless of their religious beliefs or personal background, ShareLife agencies meet people where they are, treating them with the dignity and respect we all deserve.” —Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto

ShareLife Goal

This year’s goal for Sharelife is $41,000. This is about a two and a half percent increase over last year’s goal and should be realistic for our community.

We have received to date just over $15,509.00 or 37.82% of our goal.

A very big thanks to all who participated in the Easter Tridium. The crowds were magnificent and reverent. These great feast days can be demanding for those who fulfill ministries. All who had role to play did it wonderfully. A special thanks to Joe Angelo and all who are involved in music ministry for their preparation and fine service. Joe’s efforts are particularly acknowledged as he met the many demands placed on him in the midst of welcoming a new son into his family.

Congratulations to both Joe and Allison.

Thank you

Thank you to all who have made donations to the Food Bank this Easter. It will make the work of our St. Vincent De Paul much easier and, of course, many families in our local area.

Congratulations

If you read The Bulletin, you noted the front page article regarding the Regent Park Jr. Citizen Award going to a local young man, Timothy Culupig. The article identified many of Tim's excellent efforts at community building and his strong commitment to environmental issues. One thing they did not note, it is a secular paper, is that Tim is a dedicated altar server here at St. Paul's. Congratulations to Tim for his excellent service to the community with a continued hope for his excellent leadership as a server.

The Regis Book Sale

Regis College's Annual Book Sale will be on April 14-21 (10 a. m. to 7 p. m.) Admission is free except for the first four hours of the first day when there is an admission of $5.00. The sale is at the College at 100 Wellesley St. W. For more information call 416-922-5474, ext 244

Keep the Date

Sunday, May 3rd at 2 p. m. there will be a concert here at St. Paul's. No admission, but there will be a donation box for those who wish to make a donation. The funds will be used to support the Streethaven's Women's Choir. You are invited to this worthy event. The main performance will be by the Choral Society of Toronto

Maturing Adults

Wednesday May 6 at 12:30
in the Breakfast Club

The parish maturing adults group will have a Lunch and Learn meeting at the time and place above. The speaker will be Kari Quinn-Humphrey from the Alzheimer Society who will lead a discussion on living with Alzheimer's. That may be from the perspective of the individual or the circle of support that are around them.

A Weekend of Contemplation

On April 24-26 at the Sisters of St. Joseph Home in Orillia. This is a retreat weekend for single women aged 25 to 55. The suggested cost is $150.00. Please register by April 10. rfry@csj-to.ca or call 647-637-8413

Pre Authorized Giving

Pre-Authorized Giving forms are available at the back of the church and the practice can be undertaken at any time. The first withdrawal will be on the twentieth of the month after you have signed up. There are advantages with pag (pre authorized giving) for both the donor and the church. The donor knows that their church is being regularly supported when they are away from the church. The church can depend on a regular flow of income from month to month. We provide you with envelopes for the special collections which may occur during the year.

Lectio Divina, TODAY!

Cardinal Collins will lead Lectio Divina on Sunday, April 12th at the Cathedral, beginning with Vespers at 7 p.m. The reading for reflection will be Mark 10:17-31. All are welcome.

The Role of Conscience in the Healthcare Professions

The Newman Centre invites doctors, nurses, pharmacists and others involved in health care for an evening to meet other health care professionals and to be part of a discussion on the role of one's conscience in healthcare. To RSVP call 416-979-2468, ext 244. The Newman Centre is located at 89 St. George St. in Toronto. The event is from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Friday April 17

Come and join us for coffee this weekend after all masses
