The Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi, otherwise known as the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. This celebration expresses the fundamental truth of the Catholic faith.

This Feast expresses the truth of the discourse by Jesus in the Gospel of John. The entire Chapter 6 of the Gospel of John is dedicated to the "bread of life" discourse. The Feast is also an expression of the teachings, traditions, practises, and devotions of the Catholic Church. Expressions of the doctrine of this feast can be found in the Mass, the teaching on the Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Holy Hour, and other Catholic devotions.

Jesus instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper, which began as a Passover meal. But the Last Supper came to be uniquely associated with the Institution of the Holy Eucharist when Jesus gave the Church His Body and Blood for the salvation of the world. So instead of a Passover lamb, Jesus is the Lamb of God who was sacrificed to take away the sins of the world. Through the saving death of Jesus, we now have life and salvation through His body and blood.

Therefore, on this Feast of Corpus Christi, let us give thanks for such a great Divine gift as life. May we always treasure this gift, and may we never take our lives for granted.

Our reflection is: What does the Eucharist mean for our daily lives as Catholics? How can we make the body and blood of Christ more meaningful in our daily lives as Catholics living in this modern society?

Fr. Aegi Warsito (SCJ)
