The Most Holy Trinity

This Sunday, we are celebrating the Most Holy Trinity: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. By celebrating this great Feast, we ponder what it means for us that God is 'Trinity'.

The word itself is not found in the Bible. However, in the Bible God reveals Himself as a relational, loving and compassionate God. This truth is eloquently proclaimed by God Himself.

"The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." (Exodus 34:6)

In today's Gospel Jesus speaks about the same idea: "God so loved the world that He gave his Only Begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but may have eternal life." The God who sent His Son is the One whom Jesus refers to as the Father. The One whom the Father sent, "His only Son," is Jesus, who reveals that He is also God. Both the Father and the Son send the Holy Spirit who is also God. Each of the three is God, but there is only one God.

God is Trinity because God is Love. Love is His very essence, His very nature. Our God is not a cold, solitary remote deity who watches us from a distance. He is a relational God, a Communion of Persons. He so wants to share His rich life of love that He reveals Himself for our salvation and sanctification. The Father sends His Son that we may be saved and have eternal life. The Father and the Son send the Holy Spirit for our sanctification and to guide us on our journey to our true home, Heaven. God, who is a Communion of Persons, wants us to share in His Communion of love, joy and peace for all eternity!

Our reflection is: Do we experience God as merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity? Have we accepted the gift of communion of love with God through the Death of His Son Jesus? Have we experienced God as a relational God or as a cold, solitary remote deity?

This Weekend is ShareLife Sunday

ShareLife Sunday marks the third collection for our Parish's annual campaign.

In the words of Cardinal Collins:

"Vulnerable members of our community are relying on you and me to ensure ongoing access to the care they so desperately need. This is why it's crucial we meet our Parish Campaign goal. Our goal can be met, but only if we each do our part."

Please donate at the Parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website or at sharelife.org/donate.
