Faith and Hope in Jesus

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talked about a time of reckoning. Before this time of reckoning is a time of distress when even the heavens will be shaken. And then Jesus will come up with great power and glory to gather His chosen ones.

What Jesus said in Sunday's Gospel, gives us clarity for the direction of our lives. Jesus was clear enough in telling us that there will be distress in our lives. We can't avoid it and consulting horoscopes and palm-readers can't prevent it; in fact, doing this only adds to our anxiety. But we would like to understand and comprehend the contradictions and tragedies of life, because if everything happens for a reason, then we would like to know the reason.

Yes, one day we will understand why it is happening. Things happen not just for a reason; they happen because there is a meaning, just like all the scenes in a good movie have a connection and a meaning. In a way, we are still watching the movie of our lives, but this is one movie that we are assured of a glorious ending. Jesus promised us that it will be a glorious ending. We have His word for it and His word will not pass away.

So, our reflection is: when we meet with unfaithfulness in marriage, grave illnesses, family problems and those things that we cannot understand, what will our Christian response be? Do we still dare to walk in faith and look forward in hope? Faith in what? Hope in what?

Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance is now available for you to write the names of your deceased loved ones to be prayed for during all our morning Masses in November.

The Shepherds' Trust

Sunday, November 14, 2021

For the past 25 years, The Shepherds' Trust has cared for the retired priests who always cared for us.

Your generosity has meant that since 1996, 230 retired priests received the income support they needed to enjoy modest, but dignified, lives. They were offered companionship and emotional support when they felt isolated. And they were cared for when they were sick.

On the 25th anniversary of The Shepherds' Trust, the retired priests of the Archdiocese of Toronto are grateful for your support.

Some items on the Shepherds' Trust website, www.shepherdstrust.org, include:

- Cardinal Collin's video message for the 25th anniversary of the Trust
- A profile on how Marisa Rogucki cared for our retired priests for 16 years
- A look back to 25 years ago and what the Trust means to our priests today
- Ways to help those who have always cared for us.
