Christ the King

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King to close our liturgical year. The question: is Jesus really a king? If so, what is His kingdom all about? And what is its significance for us?

In our stereotypical thinking about a "king" we understand that he is a person robed in royal splendour, surrounded by a host of military officers, advisers and servants just like in the movies.

Jesus did not deny that He is a king, but He is not a king who would destroy sinners and the lawless; a king of efficiency and results; a king who solves our problems by magic; a king whose name is to be invoked by powerful earthly leaders to sow tyranny among the weak, nor for the weak to be consumed by anger to act with terror themselves; an inspiration for the rich to become richer at the expense of exploiting the poor nor for the poor to be poorer as persons by being exploiters themselves.

So, Jesus cannot be king of diamonds for He came to bless our poverty. Jesus came to bless our pains and our aches. Jesus is not here to make our lives easier and more comfortable. Jesus is here to give meaning and purpose to our crosses, pains and trials. Jesus can only be a king of hearts. This is the kind of king that Jesus is. He is the King of the Universe because he is the king of hearts.

Our reflection is: what does Christ the King mean for our daily lives in modern society?
