33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel challenges us to think about what we bring to life's table. It's time to take stock: What are my gifts? How will I contribute? If life is a potluck, what will I bring?

This may be difficult for some of us. Instead of seeing what we do have, we obsess over the many ingredients we lack. We peer inside, dismayed to realize: I'm not inspiring, like Cheryl. I'm not creative, like Graham. I can't lead, like Sean.

Don't bother, doubt says when we think we can make something of our gifts, it'll never be enough. Besides, someone more capable is probably bringing it already. We convince ourselves that we have nothing worth sharing and so we don't contribute. Like that talent-burying servant, we are talked out of trying by fear and laziness. We hoard and bury; we close ourselves off. In doing so, we mooch from life's table. By taking and failing to give, we feast on the gifts of others yet leave them hungry for what we hoard. Perhaps that is what we hoard. Perhaps that is why the master is so upset.

God has equipped us with exact ingredients. Don't let them expire. Today, take stock and thank God for your gifts. Ask for his help to get cooking with them because the world craves what only you can bring to the table.

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November we dedicate more attention to prayer for our deceased brothers and sisters. We have put the Book of Remembrance at the front of the church and you are invited to record the names of deceased relatives, friends and parishioners in the Book. Every day during the month of November the morning Mass will be celebrated for those names in the Book.

Angel Tree Update

St. Vincent de Paul

Neighbors helping neighbors

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be holding their Christmas assistance to those in need in our Parish differently this year due to the care required during the pandemic. They will not be setting up the Angel Tree nor accepting any gifts of food, toys or clothing. Instead their Christmas help will be in the form of cash vouchers for the local grocery store along with gift cards for the families with children. These items will be sent by mail to those in need.

The Society thanks you for your continued financial and spiritual support during this time and especially at their Christmas collection on the weekend of December 12 / 13, 2020. They sincerely trust that with God's grace we shall all soon see the end of this virus and that Christmas 2021 will see a return to the joys that we normally experience during this season.
