Giving Up or Detachment

A young man in today's Gospel asked Jesus: "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" With this question, this young man tried and succeeded to be a good person by following all the prescriptions of the law of his religion. He was so very proud of this. When Jesus saw this, Jesus was also happy and so He invited him to be His close friend, perhaps one of His disciples. But Jesus wanted more from him. Sad to say, the rich young man did not like the Jesus' proposal: to sell all his possessions, give them to the poor and follow Him so that he could inherit God's Kingdom and Eternal Life.

In other words, for us today, to be called Catholics is not enough. We should call ourselves true and real Christian Catholics. When we say Christian Catholics, the emphasis is not on the word 'Catholic' but on the word 'Christian' because there are Catholics today who are not Christians and there are Protestants who are not Christians too. The rich young man cannot accept this teaching and request of Jesus because his riches will not release him for he cannot release them. Perhaps this attitude of this young man could also be our attitude.

Actually, what Jesus wants for each one of us is a total dedication of our being Christians. For example, if we're married, to live as a good wife or as a good husband and not to look at other persons who seem more desirable than our partner; to be a good employee or employer and many other situations.

Therefore, Jesus is calling us away from the world and all it holds and is calling us to God and to follow Him unreservedly. In order to respond wholeheartedly to this calling, some things must be left behind so that one can make room for God in one's heart and mind. These are what we call giving up or being detached from material possessions and to follow the Lord on His terms

So let us ask ourselves: What must we do to inherit eternal life?

Is God Calling You?

If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that new dream. Jesus asks the same as any great leader...total dedication; but He promises rewards no one else can promise. "You will have treasure in Heaven, then come, follow Me." Come, follow the call of Christ as a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you think God is calling you to one of these, call Fr. Chris Lemieux at vocations@archtoronto.org or at 416-968-0997.

World Mission Month

Please join in this special day that unites Catholics from all over the world through prayer and care for the Church's mission. Your donations will support churches, hospitals, schools and train seminarians and religious Brothers and Sisters worldwide.
