Congratulations to our First Communicants!

We joyfully welcomed more than 30 of our children to the table of the Lord for their First Holy Communion in the month of July. Fr. Jojo reminded our First Communicants that we each become a "little Jesus" when we receive Holy Communion. This enables us to go forth into the world spreading God's love. We will welcome a few more of our children to partake in this Holy Sacrament this Summer. We then begin our new program in the Fall.

VOCATIONS

Can you be bread for others?

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." This Sunday's readings remind us that the priest is ordained by the Holy Spirit to be the means by which Jesus' words are fulfilled. If you feel God could be calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, contact:

Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 or email: vocations@archtoronto.org or visit: www.vocationstoronto.ca
We pray for all who are discerning and in formation in all of our seminaries.

Featured Saint

St. Ignatius of Loyola | Feast Day: July 31

St. Ignatius Loyola was born in 1491, one of 13 children of a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius Loyola was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great deeds.

But in 1521 Ignatius was gravely wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, Ignatius Loyola experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy and aroused desires to do great things. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him.

Over the years, Ignatius became expert in the art of spiritual direction. He collected his insights, prayers, and suggestions in his book the Spiritual Exercises, one of the most influential books on the spiritual life ever written. With a small group of friends, Ignatius Loyola founded the Society of Jesus, or the Jesuits.
