Proverbs 11:25

3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT DANCING FOR JOY

This is the third Sunday of Advent, called "Joyful" Sunday, the day that John the Baptist tells the Jews that the coming Messiah wants more from them than simply being in Abraham's bloodline! To us this means, as John puts it, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise. Don't lie and accuse others falsely; take only what is owed to you and quit complaining."

To anyone who thinks church teachings are stuffy, boring, and all for old people—listen up. Advent is shocking, because it actually asks us to curb our power and our consumption. Who else tells you that, in no uncertain terms? Our college degrees, our bank accounts, and our fancy bloodlines mean nothing, IF we do not:

"Limit your passion to have and to hold, your yearning to possess and administer and control, which operates boundlessly at the expense of your neighbor. Advent is such a startling act, because it runs directly against the consumer orgy that Christmas tends to be."

All that does matter is how you share what you have, or use the power that you have in the world, to create new life for someone who needs you. That is the way to prepare for Jesus.

That is the source of joy on "Rejoicing Sunday."

Simple people have done it for generations. Immigrants cared for each other in their neighborhoods. Let's create neighborhood with each other, not simply be satisfied with lots of clothes and shoes rotting in the closet. Think creatively—how can you DO real preparation for Jesus this Advent?

Go in peace to love and serve our God!

(Third Sun. of Advent – Dec. 16, 2012)

RCIA ~ WE CELEBRATE THE RITE OF ACCEPTANCE AND WELCOME

This past weekend we celebrated the Rite of Welcome (for those already baptised) and the Rite of Acceptance (for those unbaptised).

During these special rites, the inquirers become "Catechumens" and they, along with the candidates, are asked to give voice to their acceptance of the Gospel and to commit themselves to a journey of faith under the guidance of Christ. They share with us what they ask of God and of the Church. They are signed with the cross to show that they belong to Christ and that they are now called to learn to know him and follow him. As the baptised community, we are here to accept them and to welcome them. Please continue to pray for our newly welcomed catechumens and candidates as they enter into the next stage of their preparation: Daisy Fisher, Henry Ng, Paul Oh, Anson Wong, Lydia Ho, Philip Maszkiewicz, Tang Hung, Agnes Law, Kimberly Ma Sin, Gilda Kato, Kimberley Griffith, Melanie Krol-tota, and Achieng, Sure and Anyango Miguna.

There will be confessions after all weekday masses
