CHRISTMAS GREETING

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we celebrate this fourth Sunday of Advent together, I wish to extend my pastoral greetings, blessings and prayers to each of you.

During the season of Advent, the church has called us to a time of waiting, watching and preparation for the coming of our savior Jesus Christ. So often, these final days of Advent can become "Madvent" if we allow them to become consumed with shopping, baking, and other preparations for the festive season. We can easily lose sight of the inner meaning and reason for our celebration if we give in to the "madness" of commercialism and materialism in our society. Perhaps that is why, as Catholic Christians, we need to be extra attentive to place of Christ in our lives at this time of the year.

In the Gospel reading for this Sunday, St. Matthew reminds us of the story of the visiting of St. Joseph by an angel of the Lord in dream. Just as Mary is visited by the angel Gabriel in the Annunciation, so also Joseph receives a message from God: "...do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

As we complete our final preparations for the Christmas feast, let us also heed the voice of the angels that spoke to both Joseph and Mary and rejoice in the message that God is sending us. The Virgin will bear a son who is our Lord and Savior and he will save us from our sins and free us for lives of love, joy and peace.

Amidst all of the final shopping, baking and meal preparations, let us take a few moments to ponder the meaning of the angels' words for us. They are words that invite us to receive the gift of God's love in Christ and to give it back to all those that we encounter in our lives. Advent blessings and peace,

WISHING YOU ALL "A BLESSED CHRISTMAS

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES WORKSHOPS IN 2014; SATURDAYS FROM 10 AM TO NOON

Proclaiming God's Deeds of Power ~ A Workshop for Lectors:

Saturday January 11, 2014 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon
in the Parish Hall

The role of the parish lector is integral to the celebration of Sunday Eucharist. We will explore the root of lay liturgical ministry, highlight the role of the assembly, review the place of the Liturgy of the Word and reflect on spiritual preparation for those who are called to proclaim the Word of God. Suggestions and tips for effective proclamation will be addressed. This workshop will be of interest to those serving as lectors at Sunday (Saturday) Mass as well as weekday Masses. Lectors involved with the Liturgy of the Word with children will find the session helpful as will those interested in serving as parish lectors. Light refreshments will be available when you arrive. To assist with preparation pre-registration is requested. You may register online: www.archtoronto.org/discipleship

SAVE THE DATE:

Ministers of Hospitality Workshop: Saturday, January 25

Ministers of Communion Workshop: Saturday, February 8

Please register your attendance at
