THANK YOU!

On the Third Sunday of Lent, Gaudate Sunday, parishioners rejoiced at the beautiful strains of Christmas melodies performed by our Youth Choirs, with the direction of Michelle Morello-Hayes. We thank them for lifting our spirits with these glorious sounds and for sharing their talents! We also thank our parish family who helped raise $550.00 for the Music Ministry! Your generosity is a blessing!

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY ~ SUNDAY, DECEMBER 29, 2013

Joseph appears to have been a lucky man. Hearing of the threat to his son's life, he did not seem to ask, "Why me?" or complain about having to leave his home in the middle of the night, find a new means of livelihood in a foreign land and then retrace his steps a few years later. The gospel story we hear today presents a man of faith who knew with certainty that he and his family were among God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a man who trusted in God's plan of salvation and was eager to cooperate.

Matthew was also a person of faith who believed that, in Jesus, the promise made by God to Israel was fulfilled. For him, Jesus, the Messianic branch of David, was the son called out of Egypt, the returned exile, and the light to the nations.

Having joined the community of God's chosen ones through the sacrament of baptism, we in the Church share through Jesus in God's universal plan of salvation, revealed first to Israel. Just as in the lives of Joseph the carpenter and Matthew the evangelist, concrete actions follow for Christians as a result of being members of God's holy family: care of the vulnerable, compassionate and humble attitudes of heart, and especially agape (love) to which we give ourselves over in this eucharistic feast.

Proclaiming God's Deeds of Power ~ A Workshop for Lectors:

Saturday January 11, 2014 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon in the Parish Hall

The role of the parish lector is integral to the celebration of Sunday Eucharist. Lectors involved with the Liturgy of the Word with children will find the session helpful as will those interested in serving as parish lectors. Light refreshments will be available when you arrive.
