"He who refreshes others will be refreshed"

Proverbs 11:25

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT LIVING BEYOND BREAD ALONE

Temptations—now there's a topic you don't read about very often anymore. One Catholic website advertised their booklet on temptations this way: "Sloth, Lust, and Gluttony are now available for direct download for only $3." Wow—what a bargain! And so easy, too! I bet Jesus never imagined we'd be downloading temptations someday. Turns out Jesus didn't even need to download: these same three temptations came and found him in the gospel today.

Does it surprise you to know that Jesus really experienced the same things that tempt us? That is because Jesus truly lived a human life in the flesh. And his temptations, just like ours, were tailored to hit him in the very places where he would feel weakness. Take gluttony. Jesus had just finished weeks of retreat in the desert, so the evil voice says, "Go ahead, do it the easy way—turn these stones into bread." But Jesus' commitment is to live the human life fully, to feel all the same limitations of time and fatigue and energy that we feel. So he resists the easy way out, and stays true to God's call on his life.

When we are tempted to use our money, power or sexual appeal the wrong way—and it happens very easily—do we stay true to God's call on our life? That call not to take advantage of another person, to give up some of our power, to be compassionate and humble instead of powerful and righteous? Sure, it may hurt our ego—but it will feed our souls to do what Jesus would have done. Think about it, as you start your Lenten journey this year. Jesus was right—we really can't live just by bread alone.

Go in peace to love and serve our God!

All members of the parish are invited to attend a series of evening mini-retreats this Lent focusing on the meaning of the Nicene Creed. THE BIBLE FROM GENESIS TO REVELATION

"The Bible" is a TV series that premieres on The History Channel March 3. It is produced by Roma Downey (Touched by an Angel) and her husband (producer of Survivor). This 10 hour, 5-part docudrama is a visual depiction of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation that inspires viewers to go to the Bible itself and "drink in the actual text, because it is a book that changes lives."
