SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

FEBRUARY 24

Many Gifts... One Journey
Capital Campaign News

Campaign
Goal:
$1,200,000

"He who refreshes others will be refreshed"
Proverbs 11:25

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

ENERGY FOR LIFE

In today's gospel, it's easy to focus only on the image of Jesus while he prayed. It says "his face changed in appearance, and his clothing became dazzling white." Moses and Elijah also "appeared in glory", meaning that they, too, glowed and shone with a brilliant, almost unbearable light.

But probably the last thing we are thinking is that that brilliant light has anything to do with us. We are the opposite of light, aren't we? We are called jars of clay, or earthen vessels. We are certainly reminded often enough each day that we're limited, morally and physically. Even when we're trying our best, we fail so often, so easily. We know why we have "feet of clay": we are dust, and into dust we shall return.

So, now that we're down here in the dust, we are going to have to make a quantum leap to get a clear vision of reality. Yes, sin is real. Evil is here among us, and causes us to have inclinations that go against all of God's hopes for us.

But the story of the Resurrection, which we are speeding toward week by week, is that God's hopes are the ultimate solution. God's hopes WILL be fulfilled. Can you believe that? And the full effect of Jesus' saving death on the cross will result in every one of us shining just as brightly as Jesus and Moses and Elijah are shining today.

THEIR transfiguration is OUR transfiguration! That is the hard-to-believe truth! That is the shimmering, amazing image of our future that God wants us to carry in our hearts: the glorified faces of Jesus and Moses and Elijah—not the downtrodden, miserable face of grief, bitterness, depression, defeat.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord!
