Share...Life!

Third Sunday of Lent February 28, 2016

Working wonders for those in our community... "At Mary Centre, the residents of our homes have developed friendships, yet they maintain their own individuality," says Denise Tremblett, Program Manager, "Although some of their relatives may have passed on, they love to remain active with healthy recreational activities and visiting regularly with the rest of their friends and family members.

We enjoy cooking and providing for them so they can remain at home here and enjoy their lives. We are extremely grateful that ShareLife donors have helped to make a difference for these very special people!" Last year, over 1,500 people with special needs received outreach services from ShareLife-supported agencies.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE DURING LENT

People frequently ask about the discipline of penance at this time of the year. They should be helped to understand that all Christ's faithful are obliged by divine law to do penance, but certain days the Church prescribes that it must be done (Code Canon Law, canon 1249)

Abstinence and fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Abstinence is to be observed on all Fridays throughout the year (Canon 1251). The law of abstinence forbids meat, but Catholics may substitute special acts of charity or piety. The law of fasting prescribes that only one meal is taken in a day; but it does not forbid taking some nourishment in the morning and evening.

The obligation to fast binds those between eighteen and sixty years of age. The law of abstinence pertains to everyone over fourteen (Canon 1252).

FIRST FRIDAY MASS AT JEAN VANIER

On Friday, March 4th at 12 Noon, Mass will be celebrated at Jean Vanier Catholic High School in the Chapel of Our Lady Queen of the World. All parishioners are invited to celebrate mass with the school community.

BIBLE STUDY

NEW EXODUS IN JERUSALEM

As the first exodus led to the making of a covenant between God and Israel at Sinai, the new exodus, Jeremiah prophesied, would result in a "new covenant" (Jeremiah 23:3-8; 31:31-34). What will happen to Jesus in Jerusalem – His Passion, death and Resurrection – will be that new exodus the prophets foresaw.

As the first exodus liberated Israel, the new exodus will liberate every race and people. As the first exodus freed Israel from bondage to Pharaoh, the new exodus will free all mankind from slavery to sin and death.

The actual "Passover" of Jesus takes place in His Passion, death and resurrection.

Here, we see Jesus identified as both the Passover lamb and the priest who offer the lamb in sacrifice.

In the first Passover, Israel was spared by the blood of an unblemished sacrificial lamb painted onto their door posts. The lamb died instead of the first-born, was sacrificed so that the people could live (Exodus 12:1-23, 27).

It is the same with the Lord's Passover. The Lamb of God dies so that the people of God might live, saved from their sins by "the blood of the Lamb" shed on the Cross (Revelation 7:14; 12:11; 5:12).

Our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed, "St. Paul says (1 Corinthians 5:7). On the Cross, St. Peter tells us, Jesus was "a spotless unblemished Lamb." By His "Precious Blood" we are "ransomed" from captivity to sin and death (1 Peter 1:18-19).

By faith in the Gospel, by believing that Jesus is the Messiah, the son of David and the son of Abraham, all men and women are made "Abraham's descendants, heirs according to the promise" made by God to Abraham back on Moriah (Galatians 3:29).
