BIBLE STUDY PROGRAM

We are now studying one of the darkest periods in Israel's history. It is a time when the kingdom divided in two, following a terrible cycle of sin and disobedience which continued for several hundreds of years. Most of Israel's rulers at this time were corrupt, exploited their people and worshipped foreign gods. God sent many prophets (Elijah, Elisha, Jonah, Hosea, Isaiah, Jeremiah and several others) to try and turn His people's hearts back to Him. Sadly, the people did not heed God's warnings. Israel ended up being conquered by foreign powers (Assyria and Babylon) and taken into exile for almost two hundred years. We continue to see many examples of political and religious division, and exiles and refugees in our world today. Through our baptism, we are baptized into Jesus' body and share in His priesthood, prophetic and royal mission. As modern day prophets, we are asked to bring Jesus to our families, towns, and the wider culture. We must serve Jesus wherever life takes us.

A VIEW FROM THE (OTHER) BRIDGE

A Woman's Perspective on Ignatian Spirituality Thursday, February 7 - 7 to 9 p.m. Regis College – St Joseph Chapel 100 Wellesley St. W., Toronto CENTRAL REGION Regis College will host a public lecture, "A View from the (Other) Bridge: a Woman's Perspective on Ignatian Spirituality," presented by guest-speaker Sr. Gemma Simmonds, CJ. For centuries women have been collaborating with the Jesuits in the pastoral practice of the Ignatian spiritual heritage. In doing so, they have brought to bear on it a particular creative wisdom born of their own experience. Through the perspective of Mary Ward and other Ignatian women, this lecture explores the questions raised by looking at the heritage from another viewpoint.
