WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

Each year, the World Council of Churches and the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity prepare the ecumenical resources for this WPCU. These are reviewed by our own Canadian Council of Churches and the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

This year Our Lady Queen of the World is proud to welcome our brothers & sisters from the different Christian traditions, who worship in the town of Richmond Hill, to join us in praise and worship of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

You have in your hands one such resource...the Novena of scripture, prayers and reflections for the 8 days. Start now and be prepared for our joyous Celebration of Christian Fellowship in worshipping and praising our Lord Jesus Christ on Friday, January 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

Dear Lord, awaken our minds and hearts to make Grassroots Parish Ecumenism come alive in Our Lady Queen of the World Parish. Amen

These prayers and reflections are also available on our Parish Calendar www.olqw.com

YOUTH STATIONS OF THE CROSS

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, January 19th at 7pm for all youth interested in helping out with the youth Stations of the Cross. Please come to the office for the meeting. For more information: rachelmenezes15@gmail.com

STEUBENVILLE TORONTO YOUTH CONFERENCE 2016

There will be a sign-up/information meeting for this year's Steubenville conference on Thursday, February 11 at 7:00 PM. Parents and youth are invited to attend. A $50 deposit is due upon registration. For more information, please contact Rita Cincinnato at extension 27 or rita@olqw.com.

PRAYER GROUP & BIBLE STUDY

We've said that the story of the Bible is a history of salvation – of God's desire and plan to bestow His blessing, the gift of His divine life, on all creation. God's plan of salvation, His work of blessing, unfolds in a sequence of covenants.

The covenants reveal who God is, who we are, the meaning of our individual lives, and the destiny of our lives together as members of the human race. God relates to His people – the whole human race – and to each one of us, individually, by means of covenant. In a sense, these covenants are all aspects of a single covenant – what the prophet Daniel calls God's "merciful covenant" (Daniel 9:4,27; 11:30,32).

We have identified five covenants in the Old Testament – with Adam and creation, with Noah, with Abraham and his seed, with Moses and Israel, and finally, with David and the Kingdom of all Israel. The covenant begins with the blessing of all living beings, and especially Adam and Eve (Genesis 1:28), the representatives of the human race. The covenant is renewed in the covenant with Noah (Genesis 6:18, 9:9, 11).

With Abraham the covenant is given a historical focus, a trajectory that points it toward a future in which all nations will be blessed (Genesis 17:2,4,7). The covenant with Israel is made to fulfill God's "holy word to His servant Abraham" (Psalm 105:8-12,42). God's covenant with David is made to renew and fulfill the promise to Abraham.

What is God's purpose with His covenant? To bless the human race, transforming it into a single family of God, to make each individual what Adam was intended to be – a son of God the Most High, heir to the kingdom of heaven, a ruler of creation, a "priest" who sees his or her life as a work of worship and thanksgiving, a sacrifice of praise. The language of covenant in the Old Testament is "marital" or "nuptial" – God swears Himself to be the people's God and the people swear to be His people (Leviticus 26:12; Deuteronomy 29:12). Like marriage vows in the human sphere, the Bible's covenants create a family.

MILKBAG PROJECT

Next weaving day: January 23rd from 10 am to 4 pm in the Parish Hall. Come for an hour or the whole day!

OLQW WOMEN'S GROUP

THANK YOU Norm McMullen and Kevin Dark for a delightful presentation and display of artifacts, memorabilia, authentic correspondence and Commemorative Pieces depicting the life and history of The Royal Family. We were amazed by the quality of the pieces and the personal connections with the Royals. Thank you to Edith Chesser for a lovely tea following the presentation.

DESIGNATED CHURCHES FOR THE JUBILEE WITH A HOLY DOOR OF MERCY

HOW TO OBTAIN THE JUBILEE INDULGENCE: Cardinal Collins has designated seven churches within the Archdiocese of Toronto as Jubilee Churches, each with a Holy Door of Mercy. Going through one of these Holy Doors is a spiritual journey that shows, as the Holy Father said, "the deep desire for true conversion." In addition to passing through a Holy Door, each pilgrim is to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, receive the Holy Eucharist while reflecting on God's great gift of mercy, make a profession of faith (recite either the Apostles' or the Nicene Creed), and pray for the Holy Father and for his intentions (an Our Father and a Hail Mary are recommended).
