Pope Francis launches the Synod on Synodality

Pope Francis has launched the Synod on Synodality, an ambitious two-year global process of listening to the faithful. Pope Francis is asking every Catholic to help discern what the Holy Spirit is telling us at this moment as the Church enters its third millennium. Your participation is incredibly important for the success of the Synod, so we kindly ask you to complete this survey. Sunday of the Word of God

Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter, Motu proprio "Aperuit illis", published in September 2019, establishes that "the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God". Here are extracts from that Apostolic Letter:

Regular reading of sacred Scripture and the celebration of the Eucharist make it possible for us to see ourselves as part of one another. As Christians, we are a single people, making our pilgrim way through history, sustained by the Lord, present in our midst, who speaks to us and nourishes us. We urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers. Sacred Scripture and the sacraments are thus inseparable. When the sacraments are introduced and illumined by God's word, they become ever more clearly the goal of a process whereby Christ opens our minds and hearts to acknowledge his saving work. Christ Jesus is knocking at our door in the words of sacred Scripture (Revelation 3:20). If we hear his voice and open the doors of our minds and hearts, then he will enter our lives and remain ever with us. To read the whole letter visit <https://www.vatican.va/content/vatican/en.html>; click "Apostolic Letters; scroll down to 30 September 2019
