Featured Saint
St. Mary Magdalene: Feast Day: July 22
 Because Mary Magdalene was granted the privilege of announcing the Resurrection, she was given the title, "Apostle to the Apostles." She thus became an inspiration to both her fellow disciples and to us today. The Gospels of Mark and Luke report that Mary was possessed of seven demons and that Jesus cast the demons out of her (Mark 16:9 and Luke 8:2). We don't know when Mary's discipleship began, but it's safe to assume that this miracle performed by Jesus had a profound effect on her life. It freed her of an unthinkable burden and left her with a deeply personal and unforgettable witness of Jesus' divine power, mercy, and kindness. Mary became a faithful disciple of Jesus. With the other women including Our Blessed Mother Mary, she stood by Jesus' Cross, brought spices to anoint His Body, and was the first witness to Jesus' Resurrection. She is the patron saint of penitent sinners and contemplative life.

July: Month of the Precious Blood

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pope Pius IX. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood. The Precious Blood which we worship is the Blood which Jesus shed for us on the Cross; and is made present on our altars by the priest's words of Consecration at Mass; it gives us sanctifying grace, washes and beautifies our soul and gives us eternal life.
