Milkbag Ministry returns on Saturday September 10

We are delighted to announce the return of our Milkbag Ministry. This beautiful ministry runs monthly, normally on the first Saturday of the month in the parish hall, from 10 am to 4 pm (with the exception of long weekends or whenever another parish activity is scheduled). In this ministry we weave sleeping mats out of milk bags to give to those in need in our local community and abroad. We invite all parishioners and families to attend, and are also asking for youth volunteers to help. If you would like to volunteer please call the parish office at 905-884-7006.

“Jesus reconciles us with one another on the cross, on the ‘tree of life’.”

Pope Francis, having earlier expressed sorrow and shame for the Church’s role in the oppression of indigenous peoples in Canada and elsewhere, issued a heartfelt and sincere apology to Indigenous leaders and people in Maskwacis, Edmonton, to begin his pastoral visit to Canada, last Monday. More than two thousand survivors of residential schools and their families were present. When Pope Francis apologized, clearly and unambiguously for the Church’s role in the residential schools, a cheer arose from the crowd, who had waited for years to hear his voice on their own lands. Afterwards, many expressed their gratitude to the Pope for his courage, humility, and faithfulness in keeping the promise he had made in Rome, when he met with Indigenous leaders four months ago and issued his initial apology.

Later, the Pope met with members of the Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples in Edmonton, and said that reconciliation is a gift of Christ to move forward from the pain caused by the Church’s role in the Canadian residential school system. The path forward, said the Pope, is “to look together to Christ and to embrace Christ’s gift of reconciliation, a peace that radiates from the heart of Jesus, a grace which must be sought. If we want to be reconciled with one another and with ourselves, to be reconciled with the past, with wrongs endured and memories wounded, with traumatic experiences that no human consolation can ever heal, our eyes must be lifted to the crucified Jesus; peace must be attained at the altar of his cross, to look together to Christ, to love betrayed and crucified for our sake; to look to Christ, crucified in the many students of the residential schools. Jesus reconciles us with one another on the cross, the ‘tree of life’.”
