Saint of the Week

St. Mary Magdalene: Feast Day: July 22

Because Mary Magdalene was granted the privilege of announcing the Resurrection, she was given the title, "Apostle to the Apostles." She thus became an inspiration to both her fellow disciples and to us today.

The Gospels of Mark and Luke report that Mary was possessed of seven demons and that Jesus cast the demons out of her (Mark 16:9 and Luke 8:2). We don't know when Mary's discipleship began, but it's safe to assume that this miracle performed by Jesus had a profound effect on her life. It freed her of an unthinkable burden and left her with a deeply personal and unforgettable witness of Jesus' divine power, mercy, and kindness. Mary became a faithful disciple of Jesus. With the other women including Our Blessed Mother Mary, she stood by Jesus' Cross, brought spices to anoint His Body, and was the first witness to Jesus' Resurrection. She is the patron saint of penitent sinners and contemplative life.

Volto Santo Festa (Sun. July 31)

Logo for Papal Visit unveiled

The Papal visit team unveiled the official logo of the Papal visit to Canada. The logo, which illustrates the "Walking Together" theme, is the work of an incredibly talented Indigenous artist, Shaun Vincent. "For this logo, community was at the heart of what I wanted to portray, with the caribou and bison herds, the fish and the eagles, with a dove of peace and the Keys of St. Peter- representing the Holy Spirit and the Pope - set among the animals and elements of earth, sky and water. Wherever we go on this journey of healing and reconciliation, we go together.", explained Shaun Vincent.
