Thank You Dorothy!

...For giving so much to our parish with your ministry

After many years of service to Our Lady Queen of the World parish, Dorothy Whelan is now retiring from parish ministry and her current role as a Lay Pastoral Associate.

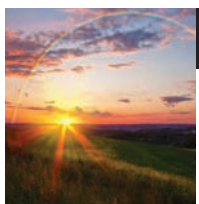

We are truly grateful to Dorothy for enriching our lives and faithfully serving in many ministries over the years. We will miss her and will keep her in prayer.

Dorothy shares this message with us. "It has been a tremendous privilege to be able to be a part of the pastoral team at OLQW parish, working with so many wonderful parishioners and youth who give so much of their time and energy to make this parish a warm, inclusive and vibrant spiritual home for all of us. I am grateful for all of you, and will continue to keep you in prayer, as I ask you to keep me in yours. Peace and blessings." - Dorothy
