BIBLE STUDY PROGRAM

During Israel's difficult history which included division of their own nation, and pagan religious influences, oppression, slavery and exile by foreign nations, great prophets like Isaiah delivered a message of hope. Hundreds of years later, Jesus declared himself to be this Messiah, when reading from the book of Isaiah, in the synagogue of his home town in Nazareth. Jesus said that God's Spirit was upon him and that God had anointed him to preach good news to the poor, release to captives, sight to the blind, comfort to the broken-hearted and to proclaim God's redemption to His people. (Lk 4:16-19; Isaiah 61:1-2). Many of the people did not believe Jesus, and rejected him. During Lent, as we walk through the desert of our own trials, Jesus asks us to accept him as our saviour and walk with him by sharing his cross and sufferings, so we may experience the Easter joy and healing of his resurrection.

Share...Life!

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

March 24, 2019

How can you “Live the Gospel” when life is so busy? Many people help those in need by volunteering at a local organization. But if your schedule doesn't allow for it, you can still make a huge impact in your community by supporting ShareLife-funded agencies. Next Sunday is the first ShareLife collection. Over the next week, please reflect on your ability to “Live the Gospel” by making a sacrificial gift to our parish ShareLife campaign.

Next Sunday, March 31 is ShareLife Sunday

Please give generously.

RCIA ~ FIRST SCRUTINY

We continue to walk with our friends journeying in the RCIA process and preparing for initiation into the Church at Easter. We celebrate the First Scrutiny at the 5 PM Mass this Saturday. Please pray that our Elect are given a spirit of repentance and the true freedom that comes from being children of God.

Cardinal Collins' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship
Section Two: The Spirituality Of Deep Stewardship

This section explores the concept that deep stewardship is not fundraising. “We can only be satisfied with deep stewardship, which means a profound inner conversion as individuals and as a community in which we become committed to living generously in every way, as the Gospel calls us to do.” To read the full pastoral letter, download resources and learn more about deep stewardship, visit www.archtoronto.org/stewardship
