CAMPAIGN REFLECTION

In these first weeks of spring time in Richmond Hill, we are reminded of one of the deepest meanings of the Easter season – that Christ is risen from the dead and through our faith in him, we are also given the gift of new life. As we enjoy the blossoming of the buds in our gardens and the greening of our trees, the warmth of the sunshine and the lengthening days, it's hard not to feel gratitude and even wonder at the way in which the gift of new life is literally rising around us in God's creation.

The launching of the Capital Campaign in this anniversary year is also a sign of new life in our parish. Fifty years ago, a group of deeply committed Catholic Christians launched a building project to create a dwelling place for God in this neighbourhood. They met, planned, raised funds and, eventually, through hard work and sacrifice, raised up a building that we are still using and enjoying many years later. This year, another group of committed parishioners at Our Lady Queen of the World have met, planned, and developed a vision for renovating our church home so that we can continue to gather here for many more years and expand our ministry with new and better facilities.

In this week's lectionary reading from the book of Revelation, we hear the One who is seated on the throne saying "See, I am making all things new." What a beautiful reminder to us that this is not just another building project or capital campaign. This is a sign of God's grace and the movement of the Holy Spirit among us calling us into new life in Christ and a renewed commitment to building God's kingdom in the world. As we launch this building campaign, let us give thanks that He is truly "making all things new" in our parish. Let us open our hearts and join Him in this work of the Spirit, supporting it with all of the time, talent and treasure that we can offer. And let us trust that we will be given all that we need by God to realize Christ's mission in the Church and the world.

THANK YOU

After the successful Blue Veil Christian Rock Concert last weekend, I would like to thank all the volunteers, young and old, who helped to make it a success. We could not have done it without you! Bravo! To the young people and families who came, sung, danced and cheered during the concert, thank you very much for coming. We experienced a vibrant parish community because of you. Bravo!

I would also like to acknowledge the presence of the Knights of Columbus. Thank you. To all sponsors, benefactors and friends who donated money and prizes towards the concert, thank you. We were able to enjoy the concert for free because of you. Thank you for supporting the young people in our parish. Lastly, I would like to thank DANNY TURCO for organizing and co-ordinating the Blue Veil Christian Rock Concert. Danny, you did an excellent job. Thank you!
