SUNDAY REFLECTION

Advent reminds us of the three comings of the Lord — the coming in history over 2000 years ago; the coming in glory at the end of time when God’s dream for humankind will be realized; the coming in mystery in the happenings of daily life.

If we can learn in these weeks of Advent the importance of patient waiting, we have learned one of the great lessons in life. This is hard for us, especially in the West. We live in an instant age — instant food, instant this, that and the other. We even speed up nature: with artificial light we fool the hens to lay two eggs a day! We are in too much of a hurry in having every possible experience too early in life.

The most important things in life cannot be rushed and require patient waiting. Patient waiting is required from the mother to bring the child to birth, and then from babyhood to adulthood; the teacher requires it with the slow learner; the politician requires it not to give up on the peace process, and everybody requires it to build loving relationships. We wait not mournfully, but in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour Jesus Christ. (Association of Catholic Priests)

We pray for our sick

May God ease their pain and give them peace and strength. We pray especially for Murray Morello, Gina Palisca, Doreen Leavens Mattia Simone, Isabella Bianchi, Maurizio Giammariola, Greg Shearer and all who are ill in our parish family, and all those whose names we have placed on our altar.

We pray for all our departed

We pray for all who have died, especially Maria Grazia Perciballi & Tony D’Adamo. May they find rest and peace in their eternal home.
