GOODNEWSPEOPLE!

Last week's Kick-Off brought together 115 parishioners in faith and community to celebrate the beginning of the GoodNewsPeople journey. It was a time for prayer and small-group introductions and sharing, followed by a social gathering at the end. Fr. Michel led us in the Opening Rite. Each group was given a beautiful pillar candle, made by the core residents of L'Arche Community. The candles were lit from our Paschal Candle, representing how, as a community, we bring the light of Christ to a world in need, turn to the Word of Life to guide us and ask for God's renewing Spirit to restore us. Each group facilitator offered an intercessory prayer. Michael Hryniuk offered a reflection on the Gospel and Fr. Morosco blessed the participant binders. We thank the pastoral team for the beautiful way they celebrated with us, Gregory Beath from the Archdiocese for his leadership and support, Danny Turco for his music ministry, Betty Vent and her team for preparing and serving the refreshments and to the group facilitators for their presence and organizational skills. Please continue to pray for the participants on this beautiful journey of faith in action as they pray for our parish family. Please note: The day group will meet every Monday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 in the Parish Hall.
