WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Evangelization of the Nations

Today is World Mission Sunday. Mission isn't something that the Church does. It is what the Church is. 'Just as a fire exists by burning so the Church exists by mission.' We ask your prayers for the work of the Church in the Missions and your generous financial help to the worldwide fund of solidarity in mission through the collection.

THE NEW ROMAN MISSAL

Until the early 1960s, Mass was celebrated in Latin throughout the world. At the Second Vatican Council, in the early 1960's, it was agreed that Mass could be said in the language of the people where it was being celebrated. There would be no fundamental change to the Mass itself, just the language being used. This would enable us to understand more fully what was being said and help us to participate more fully.

An English translation was made available as quickly as possible, but it was intended to be temporary. A more considered translation would be issued later. Now, some 40 years later, this translation has been approved by the Vatican and we will begin using it in our parishes on the weekend of November 27. Until that time, we will have the chance to learn more about the new translation, become familiar with some of the changes and reflect on the Eucharist in our own lives. For more information on the Roman Missal and its changes, visit www.archtoronto.org/romanmissal anytime to continue your reflection.

PLANNING TO BE A CATHOLIC TEACHER

Education students seeking a pastoral reference from Fr. Michel are strongly advised to begin the process as early as possible this fall for the upcoming school board application cycle. The first step in the reference process is to contact Dr. Michael Hryniuk, Director of Spiritual Formation at mhryniuk@yahoo.com. This first step is to arrange for a preliminary discernment of our candidates' vocational background with Michael and other senior educators in the parish community. Once this discernment is complete, candidates are encouraged to meet with Fr. Michel after a Sunday mass to arrange for an appointment to discuss the reference. Please contact Michael or the office for more information on the pastoral reference process.
