R.C.I.A.

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Perhaps you've been thinking of becoming a member of Our Lady Queen of the World Parish or are just curious about what Catholics believe. Or, you may be a baptized Catholic desiring instruction in the Catholic faith and wish to complete your formation through the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. If you are unbaptized, or if you have been baptized in another Christian tradition and wish to become a Catholic, the RCIA is here for you. The RCIA is The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: a journey of faith to encounter Christ's love. It culminates with full initiation or reception into the Catholic Faith Community through the celebration of the sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. Our gatherings begin October 12th and continue every Thursday evening in the upstairs meeting Room (7:30 to 9:00 PM) For more information please call the church office.

YOUTH OF OLQW WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!

October 14th Dance: Come out for a fun-time at our Oktoberfest Dance and get the added bonus of some volunteer

ASSISTED LISTENING DEVICES NOW AVAILABLE IN THE NARTHEX

Our parish has improved its speaker systems for the benefit of all. We also have available ASSISTED LISTENING DEVICES for those who require additional support to hear the Mass more clearly.

Please see an usher in the narthex and ask for one of these devices if you need one.

OLQW ARCHIVES

You may have noticed the empty display case at the back of the church near the Reconciliation Room that is just waiting to hold historical mementoes of our Parish. We are hoping to receive some of the following: photos, brochures, calendars, certificates, newspaper clippings. You may submit these items to the parish office, labelled “Archives.” Our parish coordinator, Kevin Dark, who is on the Board of Directors for the Richmond Hill Historical Society, will curate our archives. We thank him for sharing his God-given talents with us!
