Many Gifts... One Journey
Capital Campaign News

October 3

Campaign Goal: $1,200,000 Funds Pledged: $561,920 Number of completed visits: 248 Number of Volunteers: 74
--

Generosity - the level of giving in all its forms in our communities

What kind of giver are you?

Generosity can be defined as “the quality of being kind and generous or a “willingness and liberty in giving away ones’ money, time, etc”. The actions of generosity can be defined in several different ways such as the giving of money; giving of time (both formal and informal forms of volunteering); giving in-kind (giving goods, services or a skills transfer); and giving through acts of kindness (the small acts of generosity that often go unnoticed)

As we continue our Many Gifts..... One Journey capital campaign, we are looking for your support in many different ways including becoming an Ambassador. Right now we are looking for 10 more ambassadors. Please contact Joe Furfaro or Rose Cosentino and join in the fun. In the words of one of our Ambassador Chair: “Although it has been challenging to make contact with our parishioners who are extremely busy in their business, professional and family lives, once I met them I was rewarded by knowing that I now have a new parish family member I can call a friend”

Angels Angels Everywhere

Thank you to all of who have returned your pledge cards. Every angel represents an accomplishment and we will continue to add these to our Angel Tree each time we receive a card back from parishioners. This indicates they have taken the time to be visited, review the materials and respond with the personalized card inside. Thank you!

This is just the beginning – Construction Update!

Photographed here is the corner under the east stair case leading to the Parish hall that will hose drainage pipes leading from the sump pump under the same stair case out to the internal storm system to be installed in our parking lot that will eventually connect to the Town of Richmond Hill storm system

"Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)
