Many Gifts... One Journey
Capital Campaign News

October 31

| |
|---|
| Campaign Goal: $1,200,000 Funds Pledged $671,584! |
|---|

Ask the Lord to bless your plans, and you will be successful in carrying them out. Proverbs 16:3

Please return your pledge cards:

As we move into end of the Active Visiting Phase of our Capital Campaign, we would like to continue to remind our parishioners that have been visited to return the pledge form as soon as possible. Returning your pledge cards does not mean you have to pledge financial support. Simply put, it is a way of record keeping for the Capital Campaign committee on the number of returned pledges. Whether you decide to support the Capital Campaign at this time or not, we need ALL pledge cards returned back to the office

How many angels are hanging on our angel tree? 160

This weekend we hope to double the numbers adorning our Angel Tree. Come be a part of the Campaign Sunday weekend. Collect your packages, ask questions, meet with our committee members or simply enjoy a cup of hot beverage on a cold day.

Stay Tuned for more Campaign News.....

As we continue to make progress on the campaign, we will be commencing construction activity in earnest to begin renovations to our church. The bulletin board at the back of the church will be updated on a regular basis to provide you with the latest status updates. Be sure to check the board on your way in/out of church.

Need flexibility on giving?

You can support the Capital Campaign in a way that works best for you:

- A 5-year pledge
- A one-time gift
- Continue with the Capital Campaign envelopes
- Give when you can however much you can – in the 'Capital Campaign envelopes
- You can support the Campaign any time you wish to over the next 5 years
