PARISH PICNIC

HEARTFELT GRATITUDE to all the organizers, volunteers and parishioners who made this year's picnic a great success. We thank the Knights of Columbus, particularly the Klein Family who took on the overall organization and attended to countless details. A true carnival atmosphere was created by John Ferlenda, with his slushy machine, Joe Furfaro for the use of his popcorn maker, and the coffee/snack table provided by the Special events committee. Many thanks to the Marconi family for all of their organizing efforts. We appreciate the tremendous effort of our young people who came out to volunteer and bring their youthful energy and enthusiasm. Most of all, we are extremely grateful to God for giving us a rain-free afternoon!
