12:30 pm Mass

Thursday, September 30 marks Canada's first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

This day provides an opportunity to bring awareness to the painful legacy and impacts of the residential school system, particularly in light of the discoveries of unmarked grave sites at former residential school locations this year. It's a time to advance our reconciliation efforts to build a better future for everyone in our country. Reconciliation is the process of healing relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Canadians, which requires public truth sharing, apology and commemoration that acknowledges and redresses past harms.

We pray for our departed

We pray for all who have died, especially Sister Janet Chau, Orlando Amaral and Brenda Chan. May they find peace in their eternal home.

We pray for all our sick

May God ease their pain and give them peace and strength. We pray especially for all who are ill in our parish family, and those whose names we have placed on our altar.
