CHRIST THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,... "I Am the Good Shepherd", the Lord tells us, "I know My own, and My own know Me" (Jn 10:14). Today ... we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. As we reflect on the Gospel of the Good Shepherd, let us ask the Lord to open our hearts and minds ever more fully to hear His call. Truly, Jesus "knows us", even more deeply than we know ourselves, and He has a plan for each one of us. We know, too, that wherever He calls us, we will find happiness and fulfilment; indeed, we will find our very selves (cf. Mt 10:39). Today I invite the many young people here present to consider how the Lord is calling you to follow Him and to build up His Church. Whether it be in the priestly ministry, in consecrated life or in the sacrament of marriage, Jesus needs you to make His voice heard and to work for the growth of His Kingdom.

In today's second reading, Saint John invites us to "think of the love that the Father has lavished on us" by making us His adopted children in Christ. Hearing these words should make us grateful for the experience of the Father's love which we have had in our families, from the love of our fathers and mothers, our grandparents, our brothers and sisters. ... May every Christian family grow in fidelity to its lofty vocation to be a true school of prayer, where children learn a sincere love of God, where they mature in self-discipline and concern for the needs of others, and where, shaped by the wisdom born of faith, they contribute to the building of an ever more just and fraternal society. The strong Christian families ... are a great legacy handed down from earlier generations. May today's families be faithful to that impressive heritage, and never lack the material and moral assistance they need to carry out their irreplaceable role in service to society.

An important aspect of your reflection ... has been the particular dignity, vocation and mission of women in God's plan. How much the Church ... owes to the patient, loving and faithful witness of countless Christian mothers, religious Sisters, teachers, doctors and nurses! How much your society owes to all those women who in different and at times courageous ways have devoted their lives to building peace and fostering love! From the very first pages of the Bible, we see how man and woman, created in the image of God, are meant to complement one another as stewards of God's gifts and partners in communicating His gift of life, both physical and spiritual, to our world. Sadly, this God-given dignity and role of women has not always been sufficiently understood and esteemed. The Church, and society as a whole, has come to realize how urgently we need what the late Pope John Paul II called the "prophetic charism" of women (cf. Mulieris Dignitatem, 29) as bearers of love, teachers of mercy and artisans of peace, bringing warmth and humanity to a world that all too often judges the value of a person by the cold criteria of usefulness and profit. By its public witness of respect for women, and its defense of the innate dignity of every human person, the Church ... can make an important contribution to the advancement of a culture of true humanity and the building of the civilization of love.

Fidelity to your Christian roots, fidelity to the Church's mission ... demands of each of you a particular kind of courage: the courage of conviction, born of personal faith, not mere social convention or family tradition; the courage to engage in dialogue and to work side by side with other Christians in the service of the Gospel and solidarity with the poor, the displaced, and the victims of profound human tragedies; the courage to build new bridges to enable a fruitful encounter of people of different religions and cultures, and thus to enrich the fabric of society. It also means bearing witness to the love which inspires us to "lay down" our lives in the service of others, and thus to counter ways of thinking which justify "taking" innocent lives.

"I Am the Good Shepherd; I know My own, and My own know Me" (Jn 10:14). Rejoice that the Lord has made you members of His flock and knows each of you by name! Follow Him with joy and let Him guide you in all your ways. Jesus knows what challenges you face, what trials you endure, and the good that you do in His name. Trust in Him, in His enduring love for all the members of His flock, and persevere in your witness to the triumph of His love. May Saint John the Baptist, the patron of Jordan, and Mary, Virgin and Mother, sustain you by their example and prayers, and lead you to the fullness of joy in the eternal pastures where we will experience for ever the presence of the Good Shepherd and know for ever the depths of His love. Amen.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY

The month of May is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world [pay] to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance" (Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1).

This Christian custom of dedicating the month of May to the Blessed Virgin arose at the end of the 13th century. In this way, the Church was able to Christianize the secular feasts which were wont to take place at that time. In the 16th century, books appeared and fostered this devotion. The practice became especially popular among the members of the Jesuit Order — by 1700 it took hold among their students at the Roman College and a bit later it was publicly practiced in the Gesu Church in Rome. From there it spread to the whole Church.

The practice was granted a partial indulgence by Pius VII in 1815 and a plenary indulgence by Pius IX in 1859. With the complete revision of indulgences in 1966 and the decreased emphasis on specific indulgences, it no longer carries an indulgence; however it certainly falls within the category of the First General Grant of Indulgences. (A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who, in the performance of their duties and in bearing the trials of life, raise their mind with humble confidence to God, adding — even if only mentally — some pious invocation. TRIDENTINE MASS on Tuesday, May 1st at 2:00 p.m.

VATICAN II HYMNAL DEDICATION DRIVE We invite you to become involved in this effort by dedicating a hymnal to the memory of a loved one for a minimum of $20 donation. This will help offset the initial cost of the purchase of over 600 copies for our Church. A beautiful full colour bookplate will be affixed to the inside front cover to ensure that your dedication will be remembered each and every time the hymnal is used. A Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated on Tuesday, May 1st at 7 p.m. for those in whose memory the hymnals are dedicated. Prior to the Mass, the hymnals will be blessed and dedicated to the Greater Glory of God. Let us, together, thank our Lord for the wonderful treasure of His Church that is passed down to us from the ages in her authentic liturgy. If interested, please fill out the sheets found at the entrances of the Church and drop off the completed form attached at the Parish Office.

COINS FOR LIFE campaign has to an end. Please bring your boxes and donations to the sacristy. Thank you for helping the most helpless in our midst, the unborn.

NEW BEGINNINGS: FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A LOVED ONE THROUGH DEATH, SEPARATION OR DIVORCE. Come and join us for an informative evening with Fr. Brian Clough on Tuesday May 1st from 8:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Saint Bonaventure's Church, Toronto on "Annulment: Healing the Wounds of Divorce." No registration required. Enquiries: Deacon James at 416-921-1163 ext. 2227 or email at jshaughn@cfstoronto.com

*"Io conosco, ovvero amo, le mie pecore, e le mie pecore conoscono me. Come se intendesse dire: le anime che mi amano mi obbediscono, perché chi non ama la verità è segno che non la conosce ancora. [...] Interrogatevi se siete davvero le sue pecore, chiedetevi se lo conoscete, se possedete la luce della verità, non soltanto per la fede, ma per amore; non soltanto, perciò, credendo, ma anche operando. Infatti lo stesso evangelista Giovanni [...] ci ammonisce che Colui che dice di conoscere Dio e poi non osserva i suoi comandamenti è un bugiardo (1 Gv 2,4) (Gregorio Magno, "Hom. In Ev.", 14)."*

"L'ufficio della porta è quello di immettere nella casa. E questo s'addice bene a Cristo, perché chi vuole entrare nel mistero di Dio bisogna che passi per lui (Sal 117, 10: Questa è la porta del Signore e i giusti entreranno in essa). Precisa: Porta del gregge, perché non solo i pastori sono immessi nella Chiesa presente e poi nella beatitudine eterna attraverso Cristo, ma tutto il gregge (Tommaso d'Aquino, "Ev. sec. Ioan. 10,3)."

"E così si fa anche chiaro che il primo aspetto della parabola (dono della vita per le pecore) e il secondo (conoscenza reciproca) si trovano non l'uno accanto all'altro, ma l'uno dentro l'altro: poiché la conoscenza tra il Padre e il Figlio fa tutt'uno con la loro perfetta dedizione reciproca e perciò anche la conoscenza tra Gesù e i suoi è tutt'uno con la perfetta dedizione di Gesù ai suoi e per i suoi, cosa che... implica l'unità di conoscenza e di dedizione della vita del cristiano per il suo Signore. (H.U. von Balthasar, Luce della Parola pp. 186-7)."
