Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Liturgy on this 19th Sunday of Ordinary Time prepares us in a certain way for the Solemnity of Mary's Assumption into Heaven, which we will be celebrating on 15 August. Indeed, it is fully oriented to the future, to Heaven, where the Blessed Virgin Mary has preceded us in the joy of Paradise.

In particular, the Gospel passage, continuing last Sunday's message, asks Christians to detach themselves from material goods, which are for the most part illusory, and to do their duty faithfully, constantly aspiring to Heaven. May the believer remain alert and watchful to be ready to welcome Jesus when he comes in his glory. By means of examples taken from everyday life, the Lord exhorts His disciples, that is, us, to live with this inner disposition, like those servants in the parable who were waiting for their master's return. "Blessed are those servants", He said, "whom the master finds awake when he comes" (Lk 12: 37). We must therefore watch, praying and doing good.

It is true, we are all travellers on earth, as the Second Reading of today's liturgy from the Letter to the Hebrews appropriately reminds us. It presents Abraham to us in the clothes of a pilgrim, as a nomad who lives in a tent and sojourns in a foreign land. He has faith to guide him. "By faith", the sacred author wrote, "Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was to go" (Heb 11: 8). Indeed, Abraham's true destination was "the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God" (11: 10). The city to which he was alluding is not in this world but is the heavenly Jerusalem, Paradise. This was well known to the primitive Christian community, which considered itself "alien" here below and called its populated nucleuses in the cities "parishes", which means, precisely, colonies of foreigners [in Greek, pároikoi] (cf. I Pt 2: 11). In this way, the first Christians expressed the most important characteristic of the Church, which is precisely the tension of living in this life in light of Heaven.

Today's Liturgy of the Word, therefore, desires to invite us to think of "the life of the world to come", as we repeat every time we make our profession of faith with the Creed. It is an invitation to spend our life wisely and with foresight, to consider attentively our destiny, in other words, those realities which we call final: death, the last judgment, eternity, hell and Heaven. And it is exactly in this way that we assume responsibility for the world and build a better world.

May the Virgin Mary, who watches over us from Heaven, help us not to forget that here on earth we are only passing through, and may she teach us to prepare ourselves to encounter Jesus, who is "seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead".

THE SANCTUARY LAMPS THIS WEEK BURN:
In Reparation to the Our Lord Jesus Christ, TRULY
PRESENT in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar

REPARATION NEEDED Unfortunately, another Host was found in our Church by our cleaning staff. Parishioners are asked to be vigilant at Communion time and to offer an Act of Reparation.

ACT OF REPARATION

O Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore Thee profoundly. I offer Thee the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended. By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary I beg the conversion of poor sinners.

PRAYER OF REPARATION

O Jesus, my Savior and Redeemer, Son of the living God, behold, we kneel before You and offer You our reparation; we would make amends for all the blasphemies uttered against Your Holy Name, for all the injuries done to You in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the irreverence shown toward Your immaculate Virgin Mother, for all the calumnies and slanders spoken against Your spouse, the holy Catholic and Roman Church. O Jesus, who has said: "If you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it to you", we pray and beseech You for all our brethren who are in danger of sin; shield them from every temptation to fall away from the true faith; save those who are even now standing on the brink of the abyss; to all of them give light and knowledge of the truth, courage and strength for the conflict with evil, perseverance in faith and active charity! For this do we pray, most merciful Jesus, in Your name, unto God the Father, with whom You live and reign in the unity of the Holy Spirit world without end. Amen.

Questa è la vita che ci viene promessa: il Signore ci farà accomodare a tavola e si metterà a servirci. (S. Agostino, Discorso 104, 6)

Non temere, dice, piccolo gregge, perché al Padre vostro è piaciuto di darvi il regno. Piccolo gregge per il mondo, grande per Dio; piccolo, perché chiama gloriosi quelli che educa all'innocenza delle pecore e alla mansuetudine cristiana. Piccolo gregge significa non ridursi così, da grande che era, ma crescere, mentre prima era piccolo. Piccolo gregge: così definisce l'infanzia della Chiesa nascente, che promette che giungerà tosto alla gloria del suo regno mediante gli accrescimenti celesti. Non temere, piccolo gregge, perché al Padre vostro è piaciuto di darvi il regno. (S. Pier Crisologo)

Il cuore dei credenti è custodito nella fede perché è nutrito a tempo debito del cibo divino. Per questo è amministratore fedele e saggio chi nella Chiesa spende il suo tempo e il suo cuore per nutrire la fede dei fratelli senza ricercare le consolazioni di questo mondo, ma attendendo di entrare nella gioia del suo Signore.

La fede ti sia compagna nel cammino, la Scrittura divina sia la tua strada. Buona guida è la parola di Dio. Accendi il tuo lume a questa lampada, perché il tuo occhio interiore, che è la lucerna del tuo corpo, sia illuminato. Tu hai molte lampade; accendile tutte perché ti è stato detto: Siate pronti, con la cintura ai fianchi e le lucerne accese (Lc 12, 35). Dove grande è l'oscurità, sono necessarie molte lampade e in tante tenebre deve risplendere la luce dei nostri meriti (S. Ambrogio).

Arda nei nostri cuori, o Padre, la stessa fede che spinse Abramo a vivere sulla terra come pellegrino, e non si spenga la nostra lampada, perché vigilanti nell'attesa della tua ora siamo introdotti da te nella patria eterna.
